

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables	v
Introduction	1
Emmanouil Takas, Sofia Iordanidou and Nael Jebril	29
Chapter 1. Conceptualising Crisis: Events, Crisis Processes and Collective Sensemaking	9
Jamie Matthews
Chapter 2. A Reversed Narrative of Public Crisis: Xinhua's Framing of Medical Experts in COVID-19 Pandemic	23
Yu Xiang
Chapter 3. Representations and Social Influence in Political Discourse in Times of Crisis	43
Emmanouil Takas and Gerasimos Prodromitis
Chapter 4. Fall of Circulation, Savage Oligopolisation and Downgrading of the Media: The Implications of Memoranda in the Greek Press	63
Sofia Iordanidou and Leonidas Vatikiotis
Chapter 5. Elites versus the People? Tracing Populist Narrative through the Presentation of the Turkish Health Reform in Media	81
Ayşecan Kartal
Chapter 6. Disinformation and the Prespa Agreement: A Case Study	99
Lefteris Kretsos and Valia Kaimaki

Chapter 7.	Framing the Pandemic: Strategic Rhetoric in Political Elite Discourse during the COVID-19 Health Crisis	117
	Katerina Diamantaki and Lemonia Mourka

Index		139
--------------	--	------------