

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface	xi
1 Private international law in a global world: a revival of methodologies and research methods Laura Carballo Piñeiro and Xandra Kramer	1
PART I PUBLIC, PRIVATE AND REGULATORY APPROACHES
2 Politics and private international law Christopher A. Whytock	19
3 Private international law and human rights Patrick Kinsch	37
4 Conflict of methods in private international law: a legal theory perspective María Carlota Ucín	55
5 Between flexibility and certainty: navigating between hard law and soft law in private international law Marta Pertegás	73
6 The private side of private international law: deregulation and private autonomy Cristina M. Mariottini	87
7 Recognition – a methodology without a method? Dulce Lopes	107
PART II MULTIDISCIPLINARY AND INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES
8 Private international law will be comparative or it will be nothing Diego P. Fernández Arroyo	129
9 Empirical methods and private international law Christoph A. Kern	155
10 Economic analysis of private international law Giesela Rühl	172

11	The methodological influence of European private international law on domestic legal systems: a downstream analysis Adriani Dori	200
12	When private international law meets technology Marco Giacalone and Paola Giacalone	222
PART III SHAPING THE FUTURE THROUGH PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW METHODOLOGY
13	Towards private international law for everyone Verónica Ruiz Abou-Nigm and Ralf Michaels	246
14	Feminist approaches to private international law Mary Keyes	265
15	India's private international law rules: persistence of colonial law in a post-colonial state: a TWAIL exploration Sai Ramani Garimella	286
16	Private international law and teaching methodology: a Nigerian perspective Abubakri Yekini and Chukwuma Samuel Adesina Okoli	313
17	Private international law and teaching methodology in Mexico María Mercedes Albornoz and Nuria González Martín	336
18	Teaching private international law: a view from the Netherlands Aukje A.H. van Hoek	358
	Index	376