CONTENTS

Abstracts

GLUYAS, J.G. Environments of deposition: controls on pore-water history and early diagenetic carbonate authigenesis in Dinantian mudrocks of Kirkcudbrightshire.

GRIFFITHS, N.H. & ROACH, R.A. Latest Devonian-early Carboniferous basin development within the Hercynian orogenic belt of the Morlaix Region, N.E. Finisterre, Massif Amoricain, France.

WHITELEY, M.J. Dinatian sandstones in southwest England: new evidence concerning their distribution, age and environmental setting.

MOORE, D. Tectonic interference in sedimentation on the Askrigg Block.

MONRO, S.K. Dinatian sedimentation in the Dalry Basin, Ayrshire.

PARNELL, J. The depositional environment of oil shales in the Oil Shale Group, Midland Valley of Scotland.

LOFTUS, G.W.F. Lacustrine carbonate deposition in the eastern Midland Valley of Scotland.

KIMBER, R.N. Clastic deposition beneath the lowermost Carboniferous limestones of north-west England.

HIRD, K., TUCKER, M.E. & WATERS, R. Petrology, geochemistry and origin of Dinantian dolomites from southeast Wales.	22
SWENNEN, R. & VIAENE, W. Sedimentpetrographic and geochemical features of the different types of Dinantian dolostones occurring along the SE border of the Brabant Massif (E. Belgium).	26
JAMESON, J. Carbonate sedimentation patterns on a mid-basin high; the Petershill Formation, Midland Valley of Scotland.	29
GRANT, G. The Courtnacsherry Formation, Ringabella, Co. Cork.	31
AITKENHEAD, N. Volcanoes in the late Dinantian of Derbyshire, England, with particular reference to the Widmerpool Gulf.	33
GAWTHORPE, R.L. Burial dolomitization of Dinantian carbonates: Bowland Basin, northern England.	34
JACKSON, P.C. The influence of palaeoceanography on the Dinantian of S.W. England and the Rheinisches Schiefergebirge.	37
WHYTE, M.A. Palaeoecology of an upper Brigantian mud bank.	40
LEEDER, M.R. Plate tectonics, palaeogeography and sedimentation in Lower Carboniferous Europe.	42
LEEDER, M.R. & STRUDWICK, A. Delta-marine interactions and the origin of Yoredale-type cycles in northern England.	45

RIBBERT, K-H. & ZIMMERLE, W. Volcaniclastic horizons in the siliceous and clastic Kulm facies (Dinantian) of the Harz Mountains (F.R.G.)	47
JONES, P.C. Late Dinantian Clastic Sedimentation and its controls, Forest of Dean and adjacent areas.	50
RAVEN, M. The cement sequence occurring at the top of the Oolite Group (Lower Carboniferous, South Wales): the passage from marine phreatic to meteoric phreatic and then meteoric vadose diagenetic environments.	53
SCOTT, G. Variations in coastal deposits formed during the mid-Dinantian marine transgression over the southwestern part of the Askrigg Block, North Yorkshire.	56
SIMPSON, J. The origin of tabular bedding in the Arundian of South Wales.	59
JUNGHANSS, T., GOLDRING, R. & SIMPSON, J. The Dinantian between Rhosilli and Port Eynon (Gower, South Wales).	61
JOHNSON, G.A.L. Precision in Dinantian palaeogeography.	64
DVORÁK, J. The development of sedimentation and tectogenesis in the middle European Variscides.	66
SCOTT, A. Y REX, G. The accumulation and preservation of Scottish Dinantian plant fossils.	70
BLACKBOURN, G.A. Sedimentary environments and stratigraphy of the late Devonian-early Carboniferous Clair Basin, west of Scotland.	73

BELKA, Z. The development and decline of the Dinantian carbonate platform; an example from the Moravia-Silesia Basin.	75
SKOMPSKI, S. Sedimentation and microfacies of the upper Visean limestones from the Lublin Coal Basin.	77
SCHULZE, H. Nappe tectonics and flysch sedimentation in the Variscan of the Mouthoumet Massif (South France).	80
BESSIERE, G., PERRET, M-F. & SCHULZE, H. Biostratigraphy and facies in limestones of south France (Montagne Noire, Mouthoumet Massif and eastern Pyrenees).	82
VANDENBERGHE, N., DUSAR, M., DRESEN, R. & BOUCHAERT, J. Recent sub-surface data on the Dinantian in north Belgium.	85
WRIGHT, V.P. Facies patterns in the early Carboniferous of south west Britain.	88
WRIGHT, V.P. The ecology of early Carboniferous palaeosols.	92
BOTT, M.H.P. Subsidence mechanisms of Carboniferous Basins of U.K.	96
RUSSELL, M.J. & HASZELDINE, R.S. Carboniferous basin formation in the Central and northern British Isles.	97
WALKDEN, G.M. Sedimentary and diagenetic styles in British late Dinantian platform carbonates.	99

LEES, A., HALLET, V. & HIBO, D. Distribution of grain types in the Waulsortian 'reefs' of Belgium and their lateral equivalents: clues to environment and environmental change.	102
GARDINER, A.R. A braided river sheet sandstone in the Lower Limestone Group of the Northumberland Basin.	105
SELWOOD, E.B. & THOMAS, J.M. Dinantian environments in southwest England.	108
RILEY, N.J. Environmental distribution of British dinantian trilobites.	111
HESSELBO, S.P. & TREWIN, N.H. The Cheese Bay Shrimp Bed; deposits of a thermally stratified volcanic lake.	112
CHAPMAN, A.J. The sedimentology and diagenesis of a Waulsortian-style carbonate mud-mound complex in the early Dinantian of the English Midlands.	114
CLEMMY, H. & GAWTHORPE, R. Economic potential of the Lower Carboniferous: a response to Hercynian tectonics?	117
LEES, A. & MILLER, J. Pattern of facies variation in Waulsortian and similar Dinantian buildups.	119
VAUGHAN, R.D. & ADAMS, A.E. Chadian and Arundian sedimentation in the Furness and Millom areas, South Cumbria.	120
GJELBERG, J. & STEEL, R. Early Carboniferous graben style and sedimentation response, Svalbard.	125

GUTTERIDGE, P.	Sedimentation of the Eyam Limestone Formation (Derbyshire)	128
AHR, W.M.	Biohermal facies in Mississippian carbonates from Texas, New Mexico and Utah.	131
RAMSAY, A.T.S.	Dinantian shallow water deposits of Gower, South Wales.	133
SOLOMON, S.T.	Evidence of early cementation and recurring dissolution during the subaerial diagenesis of Asbian (Lower Carboniferous) shallow marine limestones; Llangollen, North Wales.	134
SOMERVILLE, I.D. & GRAY, D.I.	Peritidal cyclic sedimentation in some late Dinantian platform limestones of northern Britain.	137
STRANK, A.R.E.	Dinantian palaeogeography and structure of the east Midlands (U.K.).	143
