

Contents

Preface to the Third Edition	x
Acknowledgements	xii
Chapter 1 The Nature and Process of Academic Writing	1
1.1 Why is writing so important?	2
1.2 The nature of academic writing	4
1.3 The process of writing	10
1.4 Playing to your strengths and preferences	19
1.5 Managing your health and wellbeing	19
1.6 Using technology to help you	20
1.7 In conclusion: the process of academic writing	21
Chapter 2 Understanding the Nature of an Assignment	24
2.1 The IPACE model	24
2.2 Putting IPACE into practice	33
Chapter 3 Tackling Assignments: Writing Essays and Reports	36
3.1 Questions to ask your assessor	36
3.2 Interpreting the nature of the task	37
3.3 A typical structure for a written assignment	38
3.4 Essays	41
3.5 Practical reports	45
3.6 Business-style report writing	49
3.7 Critical reflective writing	54
Chapter 4 More Assignments: Presentations, Posters, Blogs and Dissertations	62
4.1 Presentations	62
4.2 Posters	68
4.3 Blogs	69
4.4 Dissertations	71
4.5 Planning: from large- to small-scale	74
4.6 Handling large digital documents	77

Chapter 5 Researching an Assignment	80
5.1 Being strategic	80
5.2 Different strategies for different assignments	81
5.3 Being selective (using RABT)	85
5.4 Becoming more discerning	93
5.5 Using bibliographic databases	93
Chapter 6 Being a Purposeful Reader and Note-taker	100

6.6 In-depth reading (using SP3K)	108
6.7 Annotating and note-taking	109
Chapter 7 Composing (Drafting)	115
7.1 Balancing the critical and the creative	115
7.2 Composing your first draft	116
7.3 Writing to a prompt	118
7.4 Freewriting	119
7.5 The 'no composing' approach	121
7.6 Managing your composing	122
7.7 Twelve ways to overcome writer's block	124

Chapter 8 Words and Images	128
8.1 The role of visual elements	128
8.2 Content and design	128
8.3 Using tables	129
8.4 Using graphs and charts	131
8.5 Other kinds of figure	136
8.6 Software for creating tables and figures	136

Chapter 9 Academic Integrity, including Citing and Referencing	142
9.1 Citing and referencing	142
9.2 Academic integrity	143
9.3 Styles of citing and referencing	144
9.4 Using citations and quotations	147
9.5 Plagiarism	154
9.6 Avoiding plagiarism	157

Chapter 10 Reviewing and Editing Your Work	162
10.1 Fulfilling the brief	163
10.2 Structure and argument	164
10.3 Paragraphs	165
10.4 Sentences	168
10.5 Grammar	172
10.6 Punctuation	174
10.7 Spelling	177

11.2 Making the most of feedback	187
11.3 Where to get help	191
11.4 Be inspired by what you read	191
11.5 Narratives and protagonists	193
11.6 Final word	195
Glossary	197
Cited References and Further Reading	202
Index	208