

Contents

List of activities	xi
List of tables	xiii
List of figures	xv
List of boxes	xvii
The authors	xix
Preface	xxi
1 The subject of social policy	1
Key learning outcomes	1
Overview of the chapter	1
Social policy: an identity problem?	1
The story of social policy	7
Conclusions: the subject today	14
Summary of key points	16
Key terms and concepts	18
Suggestions for further reading	18
2 Ideas and concepts in social policy	19
Key learning outcomes	19
Overview of the chapter	19
Social policy principles	19
Equality, equity and justice	24
Need	31
Freedom and rights	37
Conclusions	42
Summary of key points	44
Key terms and concepts	44
Suggestions for further reading	45
3 The development of social policy in Britain	46
Key learning outcomes	46
Overview of the chapter	46
The importance of history	46
Example 1: from workhouse to workfare?	47
Example 2: public health reform	52
Example 3: education, the role of government and the concept of the 'contract state'	54
The development of a welfare state	56
Conclusions: Britain's welfare history in comparative context	60

Summary of key points	64
Key terms and concepts	64
Suggestions for further reading	64
4 The global social policy environment	66
Key learning outcomes	66
Overview of the chapter	66
The current context of policy-making	66
Globalization	67
Conclusions: global social policy futures	79
Summary of key points	80
Key terms and concepts	80
Suggestions for further reading	81
5 The contested boundaries of social policy: the case of criminal justice	82
Key learning outcomes	82
Overview of the chapter	82
Introduction: what is criminal justice policy?	82
Criminal justice, social control and social policy: a 'penal-welfare state'?	84
Comparing crime and criminal justice	88
Measuring crime	93
The criminal justice process	95
Conclusion	102
Summary of key points	102
Key terms and concepts	103
Suggestions for further reading	103
6 Who gets what? Slicing the welfare cake	104
Key learning outcomes	104
Overview of the chapter	104
What are the benefits of the welfare system?	104
Should benefits and services be selective or universal?	107
Gainers and losers: individuals and groups	109
How large is the welfare cake?	114
Social security: who benefits?	117
Poverty and social exclusion	122
Conclusions	130
Summary of key points	132
Key terms and concepts	132
Suggestions for further reading	133
7 Social policy, politics and social control	134
Key learning outcomes	134
Overview of the chapter	134
Social control and the rise of welfare	134
Social policy and the political order	142

Social control and individual freedom	146
Conclusions: can social policies bring benign control?	155
Summary of key points	156
Key terms and concepts	157
Suggestions for further reading	157
8 Who makes policy? The example of education	159
Key learning outcomes	159
Overview of the chapter	159
Power and democracy	159
Models of power: understanding how decisions are made	162
The background: education and Conservative policies of the 1980s and 1990s	166
Centralizing control: the New Labour educational legacy	174
Policies for the future?	178
Conclusions	180
Summary of key points	184
Key terms and concepts	184
Suggestions for further reading	184
9 Work and welfare	186
Key learning outcomes	186
Overview of the chapter	186
Historical connections between work and welfare	186
Does work equal welfare?	188
The context: work and unemployment in the UK	192
Current employment policy	197
Conclusions: in whose interests is employment policy?	201
Summary of key points	204
Key terms and concepts	204
Suggestions for further reading	204
10 Are professionals good for you? The example of health policy and health professionals	206
Key learning outcomes	206
Overview of the chapter	206
Health, illness, modern medicine and health policy	207
A crisis of confidence in the medical profession	212
Medical and nursing professions in the development of the NHS	216
The health professions and health service reform	218
Conclusions	223
Summary of key points	225
Key terms and concepts	225
Suggestions for further reading	225
11 Utopias and ideals: housing policy and the environment	227
Key learning outcomes	227
Overview of the chapter	227

Housing policy: definitions and significance	229
Housing utopias and ideals	231
More history: housing under New Labour – a forgotten dream?	240
The Coalition Government approach	243
Conclusions: housing and the environment in a postmodern society	246
Summary of key points	247
Key terms and concepts	248
Suggestions for further reading	248
12 Community and social care	250
Key learning outcomes	250
Overview of the chapter	250
The development of community and social care	251
The community care reforms: implementation and outcomes	257
Conclusions	267
Summary of key points	269
Key terms and concepts	269
Suggestions for further reading	270
13 Devolution and social policy	271
Key learning outcomes	271
Overview of the chapter	271
What is devolution?	272
Devolution and education policy	276
Devolution: health and social care	281
The end of British social policy? The impact of devolution and of the EU	285
Globalization and devolution	289
Conclusions	290
Summary of key points	291
Key terms and concepts	292
Suggestions for further reading	292
14 Conclusion: the future of social policy	293
Key learning outcomes	293
Overview of the chapter	293
Social policy and rapid social change	293
The changing context of social policy: a 'postmodern' era?	299
Summary of key points	303
Key terms and concepts	304
Suggestions for further reading	304
Glossary	305
Bibliography	325
Index	345