

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	3
1. Public Law and Politics	9
The Social Environment	11
Litigation as a Political Process	15
Lobbying the Courts	20
The Executive in Court	24
Congressional Duties	30
Judge as Lawmaker	36
Judge as Administrator	40
2. The Doctrine of Judicial Review	44
Sources of Judicial Review Authority	44
The Framers' Intent	48
The Road to Marbury	52
Constraints on Judicial Review	58
Methods of Constitutional Interpretation	64
3. Threshold Requirements: Husbanding Power and Prestige	85
Cases and Controversies	86
Standing to Sue	94
Mootness	101
Ripeness	106
Political Questions	110
Virtues and Vices	116
4. Judicial Organization	119
Federal Court System	119
Legislative and Specialized Courts	126
The Appointment Process	135

Contents

Tenure and Removal	143
Compensation	149
Judicial Lobbying	153
5. Decisionmaking:
Process and Strategy	162
Jurisdiction: Original and Appellate	163
From Oral Argument to Decision	173
Unanimity and Dissent	183
Caseload Burdens	189
The Lower Courts	193
6. Efforts to Curb the Court	200
Constitutional Amendments	201
Statutory Reversals	206
Court Packing	209
Withdrawing Jurisdiction	215
Noncompliance	221
7. Coordinate Construction	231
Three-Branch Interpretation	233
Judicial Invitations	247
Uninvited Collisions	251
Guarding Legislative Prerogatives	253
Balancing Constitutional Values	255
Constitutional versus Statutory Interpretation	259
Procedural Rules versus Constitutional Interpretation	264
Enforcement of Civil War Amendments	270
Conclusion	275
Suggested Readings	281
Index of Cases	291
General Index	303