
Contents

List of contributors	x
1 Introduction to the Handbook on Managing Nature-Based Tourism Destinations amid Climate Change Ante Mandić, Anna Spenceley and David A. Fennell	1
PART I MONITORING AND MEASURING NBT-RELATED EMISSIONS
2 Evaluation of climatic comfort indices in the nature-based tourism destinations of Turkey Faize Sariş, Mehmet Şeremet and Furkan Gedik	13
3 Advancing climate change response: the pivotal role of the International Network of Sustainable Tourism Observatories Izidora Marković Vukadin, Hrvoje Carić and Leona Matotek	30
4 Measuring and managing the Invisible Burden of Tourism on Block Island, Rhode Island Nicole Wargo, Megan Epler Wood and O'Shannon Burns	45
5 Monitoring of shoreline changes and their implications for tourism: the case of the Litoral Norte Natural Park (Esposende, Portugal) António Avelino Batista Vieira, António José Bento-Gonçalves, Jorge Novais, Sara Catarina Gomes da Silva, Saulo de Oliveira Folharini and Tiago Alexandre Ribeiro Marques	70
PART II ACCELERATING DECARBONISATION IN NBT
6 Decarbonisation in nature-based tourism: the shifting paradigm in the ASEAN region Nagathisen Katahenggam, Thanam Subramaniam, Jeetesh Kumar and Kei Wei Chia	89
7 The role of public policy in accelerating the decarbonisation of the tourism industry Mira Zovko	102
8 Responses to climate change in Alpine ski destinations Lucas Berard-Chenu, Hugues François and Emmanuelle George	121
9 Towards decarbonisation plans for ski tourism: examples from the Swiss and French Alps Emmanuel Salim, Tristan Loloum and Anouk Bonnemains	136

10	Accelerating decarbonisation in nature-based tourism Susanne Etti	150
----	---	-----

PART III INSPIRING ECOSYSTEM REGENERATION IN NB DESTINATIONS

11	Integrating climate change adaptation into coastal tourism planning and management: the case of the Makarska Riviera, Croatia Lidija Petrić and Martina Baučić	163
12	Preparedness and response to climate change in a nature-based tourism destination: an exploratory case study of Banks Peninsula, New Zealand Asif Hussain	183
13	The dependency on private car use for nature-based tourism – an inescapable practice, or potential for change? Eivind Farstad and Jan Vidar Haukeland	202
14	Revitalizing ecosystems in nature-based tourist sites: a case study of Pichavaram Mangroves, Tamil Nadu, India Freeda Maria Swarna M and Shaheed Khan	222
15	Business Purpose Canvas: stimulating regenerative tourism practice through redefining business purpose Lauren Verheijen, Ko Koens, Jeroen Klijs, Jasper Heslinga and Bert Smit	245
16	Scaling nature-based solutions through regenerative tourism Chloe King and O'Shannon Burns	259

PART IV FOSTERING COLLABORATION BETWEEN CRITICAL STAKEHOLDERS IN NB DESTINATIONS

17	Using living labs to raise awareness and foster collaboration for a nature-based destination in the urban periphery Donagh Horgan, Iris Kerst and Ko Koens	289
18	Indigenous tourism through cultural participation for climate change mitigation: learning wisdom of nature and sustainability from the Anishinaabek Ho Hon Leung, William Morin, Artie Ng, Lap K. IU and Hoi F. Cheu	305
19	Spatial and temporal patterns of nature-based tourism in East and Southern Africa over the COVID-19 pandemic period Hugh J.W. Sturrock, Jonathan J. Smith, Michael Ngugi Kimani, Emmanuel Nkurunziza, Anna Spenceley, Derek de la Harpe, Holly T. Dublin, Richard Gauld, Jonathan Hutton and Neil D. Burgess	322

PART V ENSURING FINANCIAL CAPACITIES TO MEET SHARED GOALS IN NB DESTINATIONS

20	Options for financing nature-based tourism in Africa Anna Spenceley	332
21	Rebalancing the nature tourism value chain Giles Davies	347
22	Conclusion: navigating the future of nature-based tourism in a changing climate Ante Mandić, Anna Spenceley and David A. Fennell	365
	Index	372