

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction:
Settled Unsettlement; or, Familiarizing the Uncanny	1
1 Here There Be Monsters: Wilderness Gothic and Psychic Projection	20
2 Haunted by a Lack of Ghosts: Gothic Absence and Settler Melancholy	49
3 French-Canadian Gothic: Excess as Emplacement	75
4 Local Familiars: Gothic Infusion and Settler Indigenization	107
5 Playing fort da with History: Settler Postcolonial Gothic	144
6 Strangers Within: Unsettling the Canadian Gothic	179
7 Indigenous Ghost-Dancing: At Home on Native Land	213
Conclusion: The Spectre of Self-Invention	247
Notes	255
Works Cited	261
Index	277