

Contents

1 Introduction 1
Dagmar Kutsar, Mai Beilmann, and Oliver Nahkur

Part I Theoretical and Ethical Insights into Studying Child Vulnerability

2 Conceptual Framework for Understanding Child Vulnerability 11
Oliver Nahkur

3 Child Participation in Social Research: Ethical and Methodological Considerations 35
Mai Beilmann and Judit Strömpl

Part II Child Vulnerability from Different Angles

4 Child Vulnerability from a Cross-Country Comparative Perspective 53
Oliver Nahkur

5 Child Vulnerability Within the Complexity of the Family 75
Dagmar Kutsar

6 Child Vulnerability in the School Environment 95
Kadri Soo

7 Child Autonomy and Vulnerability in Healthcare 115
Kristi Paron

8 Child Vulnerability in the Digital World. 131
Veronika Kalmus, Susana Batista, Signe Opermann, Natalie Tercova, and Marie Jaron Bedrosova

9 Child Vulnerability Within the Legal System. 153
Katre Luhamaa, Anna Markina, and Kristi Paron

10 Childhood Vulnerability: Trauma-Aware Approaches for Building Resilience in Traumatized Children.	173
Judit Strömpl and Beata Žarkovski
Part III Child Vulnerability in Times of Crisis
11 Subjective Well-Being and Vulnerability of Children During the Covid-19 Pandemic	193
Kadri Soo and Oliver Nahkur
12 Ukrainian Refugee Children in the Estonian Education System During the Russian Invasion of Ukraine: Vulnerable, Traumatized and Displaced	215
Yuliia Kravchenko and Judit Strömpl
Part IV Building Resilience in Children: Looking Forward
13 Life Story Work: A Good Method to Reduce Child Vulnerability in Substitute Care	235
Judit Strömpl
14 Building Resilience: Innovation in Research and Practice	255
Laura Palling and Triin Noorkõiv
15 Public Policies to Overcome the Vulnerability of Children.	273
Graciela H. Tonon	