

Contents

LIST OF FIGURES

ix

INTRODUCTION: NOTES ON THE NATURE OF CITIES IN SOCIALIST EASTERN EUROPE

i

Comments on the concept of 'socialist cities'

i

The new urban sociology and the urban problems under socialism and capitalism

2

Cities under socialism are also unequal

4

Urban social inequalities are created by new mechanisms under socialism

9

Beyond the problems of distribution—the socialist redistributive regional management system

12

Part I. Housing and Social Structure

1. HOUSING AS A SOCIAL PROBLEM

19

The housing shortage

20

Social components of the housing problem

26

Ideologies of housing and architectural policy

28

2. STRUCTURE AND FUNCTIONING OF THE SOCIALIST HOUSING SYSTEM: THE HUNGARIAN CASE

43

Housing mobility within the state and market sector of the housing economy

43

Housing mobility and social status

64

The malfunctioning of the housing system

73

Social consequences of housing inequalities

79

3. TOWARDS A MORE EQUITABLE HOUSING POLICY IN SOCIALIST EASTERN EUROPE

85

Questions of principle

85

Practical questions

89

Part II. Urban Planning and Social Structure

4.	URBAN ECOLOGY AND SOCIAL INEQUALITIES—INTRODUCTORY REMARKS	99
5.	ECOLOGICAL STRUCTURE OF TWO HUNGARIAN CITIES	107
	Urban zones and the social processes within them	108
	The social composition of the urban zones	116
6.	WAYS OF LIFE IN DIFFERENT URBAN ZONES	128
	Housing situation	129
	Patterns of consumption	131
	Satisfaction with housing and urban situation	133
	Conclusions	141
7.	SOCIALIST PLANNING AND URBAN ECOLOGICAL CHANGE IN EASTERN EUROPE	144
	REFERENCES	153
	INDEX	157