

CONTENTS

Preface xvii

Acknowledgments xxvii

Notes on Sources xxix

An Introduction, by Mary McLeod Bethune xxxv

1. SLAVERY

PURCHASE AND SALE

|  |      |    |
|--|------|----|
| Bill of Sale of Abraham Van Vleeck                 | 1811 | 7  |
| Mrs. Blankenship Wishes to Buy a Slave Girl        | 1863 | 8  |
| Moses Grandy's Wife Is Sold                        | 1844 | 8  |
| A Slave Dealer's Sale Receipts                     | 1863 | 9  |
| A Mother Is Sold Away from Her Children            |      | 10 |
| A Slave Mother Succeeds in Returning to Her Family | 1846 | 12 |
| A Slave Shams Illness to Stay with Her Husband     | 1847 | 13 |

TELL IT LIKE IT WAS

|  |                 |    |
|--|-----------------|----|
| Daily Life of Plantation Slaves  |                 | 15 |
| The Slaves' Garden Plot  | 1836            | 17 |
| A House Slave's Family Life  | 1861            | 17 |
| A Seamstress Is Punished   | 1839            | 18 |
| The Daily Life of House Slaves   | 1839            | 19 |
| I Wasn't Crying 'Bout Mistress, I Was Crying 'Cause the White Bread Was Gone | Martha Harrison | 22 |

THE STRUGGLE FOR SURVIVAL— DAY-TO-DAY RESISTANCE

|   |                        |    |
|---|------------------------|----|
| Sneaking an Education: Memories of a Contraband | Susie King Taylor      | 27 |
| Foolin' Massa: Memories of a Contraband         |                        | 29 |
| She Finally Went to School That One Night       | Josephine Thomas White | 30 |
| A Slave Woman Runs a Midnight School            | Milla Granson          | 32 |
| A Slave Mother in Business                      |                        | 33 |
| Fight, and If You Can't Fight, Kick             |                        | 34 |
| A Mother Purchases Her Daughter                 |                        | 40 |
| Ransoming a Woman from Slavery                  | 1859                   | 41 |
| Stephen and Juba                                | 1838-1839              | 42 |

A WOMAN'S FATE

|  |           |    |
|--|-----------|----|
| The Way Women Are Treated                    | 1839      | 47 |
| The "Breeder Woman"                          |           | 47 |
| The Nursing Mothers                          | 1836      | 48 |
| A Slaveholder's Wife Listens to Her Slaves   | 1838-1839 | 48 |
| The Slaveholder's Mistress                   |           | 50 |
| A Slaveholder Confides to Her Diary          |           | 51 |
| The Story of Nancy Weston as Told by Her Son | 1868      | 52 |

ON THE ROAD TO FREEDOM

|                             |                     |    |
|-----------------------------|---------------------|----|
| The Rescue of Jane Johnson  | 1855                | 54 |
| Dramatic Slave Rescues      | 1855, 1857          | 57 |
| The Case of Margaret Garner | 1856                | 60 |
| They Called Her "Moses"     | Harriet Tubman 1860 | 63 |
| An Ingenious Escape         | Ellen Craft 1848    | 65 |

2. THE STRUGGLE FOR EDUCATION LEARNING TO TEACH

|                               |                  |      |    |
|-------------------------------|------------------|------|----|
| Teaching School to Keep Alive | Maria W. Stewart | 1832 | 83 |
|-------------------------------|------------------|------|----|

ix CONTENTS

|   |                       |      |    |
|---|-----------------------|------|----|
| Establishing a Girls' Department in the Institute for Colored Youth | Sarah Mapps Douglass  | 1853 | 85 |
| Training to Become an Educator                                      | Fannie Jackson Coppin | 1869 | 88 |
| Methods of Instruction  | Fannie Jackson Coppin | 1913 | 90 |

TEACHING THE FREEDMEN

|   |                         |           |     |
|---|-------------------------|-----------|-----|
| A Teacher from the North  | Charlotte Forten Grimké | 1863      | 94  |
| A Former Slave Teaches Black Soldiers   | Susie King Taylor       | 1862      | 99  |
| Teachers Wanted   |                         | 1865      | 101 |
| Reports from the Field  |                         | 1866-1869 | 102 |
| Administration of Freedmen's Schools  |                         | 1871      | 108 |
| An Example of Teaching Materials Used in Freedmen's Schools in Virginia in 1870 |                         |           | 108 |
| Catechizing Freedmen Children   |                         | 1869      | 110 |
| They Would Not Let Us Have Schools  |                         | 1871      | 112 |
| Schooling in the Jim Crow South   | Septima Poinsetta Clark | 1916-1928 | 114 |

SCHOOL FOUNDERS

|  |                         |           |     |
|--|-------------------------|-----------|-----|
| A Progress Report from the Founder of the Haines School  | Lucy Laney              | 1893      | 122 |
| Fund Raising for Palmer Memorial Institute               | Charlotte Hawkins Brown | 1920-1921 | 124 |
| The National Training School for Girls Appeals for Funds | Nannie Burroughs        | 1929      | 132 |
| A College on a Garbage Dump                              | Mary McLeod Bethune     | 1941      | 134 |
| Another "Begging" Letter                                 | Mary McLeod Bethune     | 1930      | 143 |

3. A WOMAN'S LOT

BLACK WOMEN ARE SEX OBJECTS FOR WHITE MEN

|                                   |  |      |     |
|-----------------------------------|--|------|-----|
| The Married Life of Georgia Peons |  | 1901 | 150 |
| We Are Little More Than Slaves    |  | 1912 | 155 |

X CONTENTS

|  |            |     |
|--|------------|-----|
| No Protection for Black Girls                  | 1904       | 158 |
| Their Rage Was Chiefly DirectedAgainst Men | 1863       | 159 |
| The Final Solution                             | 1911, 1914 | 161 |

THE MYTH OF THE "BAD" BLACK WOMAN

|   |                            |      |     |
|---|----------------------------|------|-----|
| The Accusations Are False   | Fannie BarrierWilliams | 1904 | 164 |
| A Colored Woman, However Respectable,is Lower Than the White Prostitute | Anonymous                  | 1902 | 166 |
| In Defense of Black Women   | Elsie JohnsonMcDougald | 1925 | 169 |

THE RAPE OF BLACK WOMEN AS A WEAPON OF TERROR

|  |           |     |
|--|-----------|-----|
| The Memphis Riot                                 | 1865      | 173 |
| KKK Terror During Reconstruction                 | 1871      | 180 |
| Defend Black Women—And Die!                      |           |     |
| The Lynching of Berry Washington                 | 1919      | 188 |
| The Case of Mrs. Rosa Lee Ingramand Her Sons | 1947-1959 | 190 |

BLACK WOMEN ATTACK THE LYNCHING SYSTEM

|  |                                 |      |     |
|--|---------------------------------|------|-----|
| Let There Be Justice                     | Frances EllenWatkins Harper | 1891 | 194 |
| How to Stop Lynching                     |                                 | 1894 | 194 |
| A Red Record                             | Ida B. WellsBarnett         | 1895 | 196 |
| Lynching from a Negro's Point ofView | Mary ChurchTerrell          | 1904 | 205 |
| The Anti-lynching Crusaders              |                                 | 1923 | 211 |

4. MAKING A LIVING DOING DOMESTIC WORK

|  |                |      |     |
|--|----------------|------|-----|
| I Live a Treadmill Life                              | Anonymous      | 1912 | 227 |
| Slave Markets in New York City                       |                | 1940 | 229 |
| The Domestic Workers' Union                          |                | 1937 | 231 |
| Organizing Domestic Workers in At-lanta, Georgia | Dorothy Bolden | 1970 | 234 |

FROM SERVICE JOBS TO THE FACTORY

|   |                                 |           |     |
|---|---------------------------------|-----------|-----|
| An Army Laundress at War                              | Susie KingTaylor            | 1864      | 240 |
| Black Women in the Reconstruction South               | Frances EllenWatkins Harper | 1878      | 243 |
| The Negro Woman Worker: 1860–1890                     | Jean CollierBrown           | 1931      | 250 |
| The Tobacco Workers                                   | Emma L. Shields                 | 1921      | 252 |
| Two Million Women at Work                             | Elizabeth RossHaynes        | 1922      | 255 |
| Women of the Steel Towns                              | Mollie V. Lewis                 | 1938      | 260 |
| A Black Union Organizer                               | Sabina Martinez                 | 1941      | 263 |
| Organizing at Winston-Salem, North Carolina           |                                 | 1947–1951 | 265 |
| Estelle Flowers                                       |                                 |           | 267 |
| Luanna Cooper   |                                 |           | 267 |
| Moranda Smith   |                                 |           | 269 |
| It Takes a While to Realize That It Is Discrimination | Florence Rice                   | 1970      | 275 |

5. SURVIVAL IS A FORM OF RESISTANCE

|   |                             |       |     |
|---|-----------------------------|-------|-----|
| Something Told Me Not to Be Afraid                        | Charlotte AnnJackson    | 1865  | 288 |
| Three Times Three Cheers for the Gun-boat Boys            |                             | 1863? | 288 |
| A Black Woman Remembers Her Father                        | Anonymous                   | 1904  | 290 |
| A Family Struggles to Keep Going                          | Frances A.Joseph Gaudet | 1868  | 292 |
| A Night Watch   | Maria L. Baldwin            | 1863? | 294 |
| I was a Negro Come of Age                                 | Ellen Tarry                 | 1955  | 296 |
| We Want to Live, Not Merely Exist                         | Mrs. HenryWeddington    | 1941  | 300 |
| Blue Fork Is the Worst Place I Know                       | Sarah Tuck                  | 1941  | 302 |
| I Did Not Really Understand What It Meant to Be a Negro   | Daisy Lee Bates             | 1927  | 306 |
| Helping Out Daddy   | LouiseMeriwether        | 1967  | 308 |
| Am I My Brother's Keeper?                                 | Helen Howard                | 1965  | 311 |
| Having a Baby Inside Me Is the Only Time I'm Really Alive | Anonymous                   | 1964  | 313 |

6. IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE AND POLITICAL LIFE

|  |                          |            |     |
|--|--------------------------|------------|-----|
| A Pioneer Newspaper Woman                    | Mary Ann Shadd Cary      | 1852       | 323 |
| Nurse, Spy and Scout                         | Harriet Tubman           | 1868, 1898 | 326 |
| Opportunities for the Educated Colored Woman | Eva D. Bowles            | 1923       | 330 |
| Government Work in World War I               | Mary Church Terrell      | 1917-1918  | 333 |
| "Election Day"                               | Elizabeth Piper Ensley   | 1894       | 337 |
| The Negro Woman in Politics                  | Mrs. Robert M. Patterson | 1922       | 339 |
| I Accept This Call                           | Charlotta Bass           | 1952       | 342 |
| Developing Community Leadership              | Ella Baker               | 1970       | 345 |
| The 51% Minority                             | Shirley Chisholm         | 1970       | 352 |

7. THE MONSTER PREJUDICE IN THE GRIP OF THE MONSTER

|   |                         |                    |     |
|---|-------------------------|--------------------|-----|
| Martyr for Freedom  | Amy Spain               | 1865               | 361 |
| I Believe They Despise Us for Our Color                         | Sarah M. Douglass       | 1837               | 362 |
| When, Oh! When Shall This Cease?                                | Charlotte Forten Grimké | 1855; 1899         | 365 |
| Fighting Jim Crow   | Sojourner Truth         | approximately 1866 | 370 |
| Suing for Her Rights  | Charlotte Hawkins Brown | 1921               | 375 |
| The Small Horrors of Childhood                                  | Anonymous               | 1904               | 376 |
| What It Means to be Colored in the Capital of the United States | Mary Church Terrell     | 1907               | 378 |
| Traveling Jim Crow  | Mahalia Jackson         | 1966               | 383 |
| The Life and Death of Juliette Derri-cotte                      |                         | 1931               | 384 |
| There is No Prejudice in Arkansas                               |                         | 1936               | 397 |
| Discrimination on WPA: Black Women Appeal to FDR                |                         | 1935; 1941         | 398 |

FREEDOM—NOW!

|   |                  |      |     |
|---|------------------|------|-----|
| The Causes of the Harlem Riot                             | Nannie Burroughs | 1935 | 407 |
| Breaking Restrictive Covenants                            |                  | 1948 | 410 |
| The Ordeal of the Children                                | Daisy Bates      | 1962 | 414 |
| All I Could Think of Was How Sick Mississippi Whites Were | Anne Moody       | 1968 | 425 |

8. "LIFTING AS WE CLIMB" FROM BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES TO NATIONAL CLUB MOVEMENT

|  |  |      |     |
|--|--|------|-----|
| The Afric-American Female Intelligence Society of Boston |  | 1832 | 437 |
| The Beginnings of the National Club Movement             | Josephine St. Pierre Ruffin;Margaret Murray Washington | 1895 | 440 |
| The Ruffin Incident                                      | Fannie Barrier Williams                                    | 1900 | 447 |
| Club Activities, NACW Convention                         |  | 1906 | 450 |

INTERRACIAL WORK

|                                     |  |      |     |
|-------------------------------------|--|------|-----|
| Cooperation on a Community Level    |  | 1907 | 460 |
| The Colored Women's Statement       |  | 1919 | 461 |
| Speaking Up for the Race at Memphis |  | 1920 | 467 |
| How to Stop Lynchings: A Discussion |  | 1935 | 472 |

INSIDE A WHITE ORGANIZATION— THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

|   |                      |           |     |
|---|----------------------|-----------|-----|
| Eva Bowles Calls for Action                   |                      | 1920      | 479 |
| What the Colored Women Are Asking of the YWCA |                      | 1920      | 480 |
| Too Much Paternalism in "Y's"                 |                      | 1920      | 483 |
| Reports by the Secretary for Colored Work     | Eva Bowles           | 1922-1930 | 484 |
| Reminiscences of a YWCA Worker                | Anna Arnold Hedgeman | 1924-1938 | 489 |

GRASS-ROOTS WORK

|  |  |      |     |
|--|--|------|-----|
| Plan of Work: Atlanta Colored Women's War Council, World War I |  | 1918 | 498 |
|--|--|------|-----|

xiv CONTENTS

|  |           |     |
|--|-----------|-----|
| The Neighborhood Union, Atlanta, Georgia                   | 1908-1932 | 500 |
| The Story of the Gate City Free Kindergarten Association   |           | 509 |
| The Poor Help Themselves: The Vine City Foundation         | 1968      | 512 |
| Operation Daily Bread: The National Council of Negro Women | 1969      | 517 |

9. RACE PRIDE

|  |   |                     |     |
|--|---|---------------------|-----|
| Throw Off Your Fearfulness and Come Forth      | Maria W. Stewart                        | 1832                | 526 |
| Emigration to Mexico                           | Anonymous                               | 1832                | 530 |
| I Belong to This Race                          | Frances Ellen Watkins Harper            | 1870                | 533 |
| Let the Afro-American Depend but on Himself    | Ida B. Wells Barnett                    | 1892                | 537 |
| The South Is Our Home                          | Amanda Smith Jemand                     | 1901                | 540 |
| Black History Builds Race Pride                |   | 1933                | 542 |
| Please Stop Using the Word "Negro"             | Mary Church Terrell                     | 1882;1922; 1938 | 547 |
| Glorify Blackness                              | Nannie Burroughs                        | 1949                | 550 |
| Unload Your Uncle Toms                         | Nannie Burroughs                        | 1927                | 551 |
| The Only Thing You Can Aspire to is Nationhood | Dara Abubakari (Virginia E. Y. Collins) | 1970                | 553 |

10. BLACK WOMEN SPEAK OF WOMANHOOD

|  |                  |            |     |
|--|------------------|------------|-----|
| What If I Am a Woman?  | Maria W. Stewart | 1832       | 563 |
| I Suppose I am About the Only Colored Woman That Goes About to Speak for the Rights of Colored Women | Sojourner Truth  | 1853; 1867 | 566 |
| The Colored Woman Should Not Be Ignored  | Anna J. Cooper   | 1892       | 572 |

XV      CONTENTS

|   |   |      |     |
|---|---|------|-----|
| The New Black Woman                                   | Fannie Barrier Williams                 | 1900 | 575 |
| Women As Leaders                                      | Amy-Jacques Garvey                      | 1925 | 576 |
| A Century of Progress of Negro Women                  | Mary McLeod Bethune                     | 1933 | 579 |
| The Strength of the Negro Mother                      | Mahalia Jackson                         | 1966 | 584 |
| The Black Woman Is Liberated in Her Own Mind          | Dara Abubakari (Virginia E. Y. Collins) | 1970 | 585 |
| Women's Liberation Has a Different Meaning for Blacks | Renee Ferguson                          | 1970 | 587 |
| Jim Crow and Jane Crow                                | Pauli Murray                            | 1964 | 592 |
| Poor Black Women                                      | Patricia Robinson                       | 1970 | 599 |
| Facing the Abortion Question                          | Shirley Chisholm                        | 1970 | 602 |
| I Want the Right to Be Black and Me                   | Margaret Wright                         | 1970 | 607 |
| It's in Your Hands                                    | Fannie Lou Hamer                        | 1971 | 609 |

Bibliographical Notes      615