

NETHERLANDS INTERNATIONAL LAW REVIEW

Volume 71 · Number 2 · 2024

Special Issue: The Russia-Ukraine War and (Dis)Continuity in International Law

Guest editors: Machiko Kanetake, Denise Prévost, Jan Wouters

EDITORIAL

The Russia-Ukraine War and (Dis)Continuity in International Law

M. Kanetake · D. Prévost · J. Wouters 227

SPECIAL ISSUE ARTICLES

Self-Defence As Remedial Self-Determination: Continuity in Russian Narratives to Justify Imperialism and the Use of Force

A.M. Pelliconi 233

Forcible Protection of Nationals Abroad: The Doctrine's Hegemonic Use

I. Pervou 261

The Ukrainian–Russian Armed Conflict and the Law of Neutrality: Continuity, Discontinuity, or Irrelevance?

G. Bartolini 281

The Quest for Proportionality in the Changing Landscape of the Unilateral Sanctions of the European Union

M. Terlinden 299

REGULAR ARTICLES

The Loss and Damage Fund: A Solution to Interpretive Conflicts of Responsibility for Climate Change?

H. Salimi Turkamani 327

Environmental Intervention: An Activist Idea or a Legal Tool? An Analysis of the Possibilities of Environmental Protection in Light of the Principle of Non-Intervention

E. van den Boogaard 353

BOOK REVIEW

Arianna Whelan, Reciprocity in Public International Law · Cambridge University Press, Cambridge 2023, x + 284 pp.

M. Kałduński 383