

CONTENTS

List of contributors	x
Foreword	xxvi
1 Participatory approaches in ageing research: An Overview Anna Urbaniak and Anna Wanka	1
PART 1
Methodological aspects of participatory approaches in ageing research	15
2 Role of reflexivity in challenging participation inequality in participatory approaches with older adults Anna Urbaniak	17
3 The willingness of older adults to engage in participatory research: Empirical Findings from Switzerland Alexander Seifert	31
4 Involving older adults in the data analysis process Julia Nolte and Hamid B. Turker	45
5 Participatory research and development approaches in applied ageing research Birgit Aigner-Walder, Marika Gruber, Gabriele Hagendorfer-Jauk, Daniela Krainer, Johannes Oberzaucher and Christine Pichler	59

PART 2

Designing research together with older adults	77
6 Setting the research agenda together as a form of productive ageing. Rationale and exemplary cases Mariano Sánchez and Raúl López-López	79
7 Co-creating culturally nuanced social measures with indigenous elders Charles Waldegrave, Chris Cunningham, Catherine Love, Giang Nguyen and Monica Mercury	92
8 Tensions in transformation: Participatory Approaches in Sustainable Energy Technology Projects in the UK and India Carol Ann Maddock, Vanessa Burholt, Deborah Jane Morgan, Khushboo Ahire and Charles Musselwhite	107

PART 3

Collecting data together with older adults	123
9 Promenade parlante: Intergenerational Dialogue, Urban Scenography, and Co-Creation Cynthia Imogen Hammond, Shauna Janssen, and Eric Craven	125
10 Older individuals' active participation in data collection in diverse settings in South Africa Vera Roos	141
11 Challenges and opportunities of new product co-creation with older consumers Krzysztof Klincewicz, Katarzyna Dębska, Katarzyna Król, Marcin Skupiński and Magdalena Zatorska	158

PART 4

Analysing and validating results together with older adults	173
12 Experience of member check with older adults in non-participatory-research-culture Irena Zemaitaityte, Jolanta Pivoriene and Agata Katkonienė	175
13 "We talked about years that I experienced as well!" – the role of age in the participatory design of phone befriending services in Estonia Tiina Tambaum	185

Contents

14	When care is moving in – participatory approaches to elicit needs and desires when healthcare has become a natural part of your daily life	199
	Giana Carli Lorenzini and Johanna Persson
15	Older adults in research: A participatory approach to sexuality and intimacy based on an example from Poland	214
	Mariola Bieńko and Damian Kalita
 PART 5
	Disseminating results together with older adults	229
16	Promoting civic participation: Comparing three co-produced models of lifelong learning and cultural engagement in the UK	231
	Anna Goulding and Thomas Scharf
17	Making graphic magazines with people living with dementia: The case for participatory dissemination	248
	Sarah Campbell and Andrew Clark
18	The Later Life Audio and Radio Co-operative: Creating sustainable communities from participatory action research	262
	Arlind Reuter and Thomas Scharf
19	The living library – a participatory approach to societal research impact	273
	Bram Vanhoutte and Neil Dymond-Green
 PART 6
	Doing the whole research process together	287
20	The Belgian ageing studies: Peer research as an instrument to empower older people	289
	Nico De Witte, Dominique Verté and Emily Verté
21	A service provider approach to rights-based research	300
	Meg Polacsek and Tabitha Porter
22	Patient partner engagement in dementia research during the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond	314
	Lillian Hung and Mario Gregorio

PART 7

Voices and experiences of older co-researchers 329

- 23 Working together to research the everyday lives of people living with dementia and those supporting them 331

Diane Seddon, Teresa (Dory) Davies and Hannah Jelley

- 24 Co-creating research: Co-researchers' parallel conversations with Māori elders 339

Charles Waldegrave and Monica Mercury

- 25 Co-creating research: Co-researchers' parallel conversations from the participatory action research project 'CareComLabs' 352

Shkumbin Gashi and Erich Kohler

- 26 Doing research together – insights from the intergenerational project "DigiGen" in Germany 358

Anna Wanka, Miranda Leontowitsch, Friedrich Wolf and Horst Schöberl

- 27 Co-creating research: Co-researchers' parallel conversations from the project 'SEVEN – Socially Excluded Older Adults: Voices and Experiences' 365

Charlotte Gruber and Katrin Lehner

PART 8

Future perspectives in the field of participatory approaches in ageing research 373

- 28 Participation for mission-oriented innovation: A governance perspective 375

Julian Stubbe, Anne Busch-Heizmann and Maxie Lutze

- 29 Employing citizen science to understand the contemporary needs of older adults accessing and using technology in a pandemic 390

Hannah R. Marston, Deborah Jane Morgan, Gemma Wilson-Menzfeld, Jessica Gates, Carol Ann Maddock, Elisabeth J., Jenny Philips, Gavin Bailey, and Julie Nicholson

- 30 Co-producing knowledge: Reflections from a community-based participatory research project on caring communities to strengthen ageing in place 402

Heidi Kaspar, Claudia Müller, Shkumbin Gashi and Dennis Kirschsieper

31	Epistemology and methodology of participatory research with older adults: A comparison of four age-friendly city national experiences	419
	Myriam Leleu, Mario Paris, Hugo Bertillot, Suzanne Garon, Robert Grabczan, Olivier Masson, Thibauld Moulaert and Damien Vanneste
32	Participatory approaches in ageing research: Future perspectives	435
	Anna Urbaniak and Anna Wanka
	Index	441