

Contents

Foreword

By Leon Jespersen 11

List of Maps 12

I Introduction: Government and Society in Early Modern Scandinavia 1560-1721

By Øystein Rian 13

Historical Framework of the Period under Investigation 19

The Two Early Modern States of Scandinavia 19

Main Historical Trends During the Period 22

The Common Project Platform 27

II The Constitutional and Administrative Situation

By Leon Jespersen 31

1 Points of Departure – the Totality 35

“A Foolish and Barbarous People” 35

The State – the Difficult Word 35

Framework of Research 37

2 The Constitutional Situation 44

Introduction 44

Society of Estates versus State of Estates 44

The Constitutional Situation in Scandinavia before the Reformation 45

From the Reformation to Absolute Monarchy 47

3 Ideological Aspects 59

Function of Ideology 59

Coronation Ceremonies: Theocracy and Doctrine of Contracts 60

4 Administrative Structures 66

Introduction 66

The Swedish Form of Government of 1634 (1634-FG) 69

The Danish Central Administration 70

Nobility and Office 72

The College Principle and the Constitutional System 76

Central Power – Town Administration 79

	“Dependencies” and Provinces	81
	Introductory Remarks	81
	The Finnish Part of the Realm	81
	The Norwegian Part of the Realm	85
	Concluding Remarks	88
5	Estates and State Finances	91
	State Power as a Credit Problem	91
	Denmark	91
	Sweden	97
	An Example: the Towns	101
6	Judiciary, Taxation and Administration of Conscription	108
	Introduction	108
	Sweden’s Judiciary: Organization and Character	108
	Structure	108
	Tendencies of Development	109
	Centralization and Its Price	110
	Nämnd and Häradshövding	113
	Law of Legal Procedure and Criminal Law	114
	The Danish Judiciary	117
	Taxation and Conscription System	121
	General Remarks	121
	Swedish Tax Administration	121
	Danish Tax Administration	125
	Conscription System	128
7	Economic Redistribution and Reactions	138
	Introduction	138
	To wait in Kalmar or Meet Them in Stralsund:
	Swedish War Propaganda in the 1620s	139
	A Religious War? Aims and Means in Denmark’s Foreign Policy in the 1620s	142
	Patterns of Reaction	145
	Economic Redistribution	149
	“Reactive” Reactions	151
	“To Be” and “To Have” – a Time of Transition	153
	“Proactive” Reactions	158
8	Power-Political Equilibrium	162
	The Struggle about the “Harsh” Ruling Means: From “Herrschaftsvertrag” to “Verfassungsurkunde”	162
	Sweden: The Background and Appearance of the 1634-FG	164
	The Division of Power According to 1634-FG	166
	Gunde Rosenkrantz’ Danish “Form of Government”	169
9	Conclusion	175

III State, Elite and Peasant Power in a Norwegian Region, Bratsberg County, in the 17th Century

By Øystein Rian 183

- 1 Introduction 187
 - Norway in the Oldenburg Monarchy 187
 - Bratsberg 192
- 2 Patronage Relationships 196
- 3 State Revenues in Bratsberg – a Brief Sketch of Developments 204
- 4 The Contest for Tax Revenues 210
 - The Timber Tax – the Crown’s Lost Tax 210
 - The Sawmill Tax – Measures and Countermeasures 211
 - Farm Taxation in Bratsberg: Principles and Irregularities, 1600-1640 213
 - A More Efficient Taxation, 1640-1660 214
 - Attitudes Among Local Officials 215
 - The Mobilizing Role of the Governor General 217
 - Tax Arrears, Tax Evasion, and Exemption because of Destitution 218
 - The Land Commission of 1661 and the Fiscal Unrest, 1662-1663 220
 - Administrative Strategies – Land Rate Taxation 223
 - Tax Limitation Endeavours 224
 - Collection of Tax Arrears and “Military Execution” 226
 - Merchants Paying Taxes on Behalf of Farmers 229
- 5 The Rise and Fall of Customs Duties 232
 - The Crown’s Successful Customs Reform 232
 - Dutchmen, Customs Officers and Merchants Keeping Tariffs Down 233
 - New Rise in Tariffs – and a Steep Fall 235
- 6 Government Revenue and the Regional Economy 240
 - The Management of Government Revenue 241
 - Government Expenditure in Bratsberg and the Net Regional Tax Burden 243
 - Who Won? 245

IV Adaptation or Protestation: Local Community Facing the Conscription of Infantry for the Swedish Armed Forces, 1620-1679

By Nils Erik Villstrand 249

- 1 Introduction 253
- 2 Local Community and Central Power – Extraction of Resources, Reactions and Social Effects 254
 - The Decisions: their Legitimation and Application 254

	The Reactions of the Local Community	255
	Central Power and Local Community: An Interactive Model	259
	The Questions and the Disposition of the Investigation	260
3	Infantry Recruitment in the Swedish Realm	264
	Levy (Uppbåd)	264
	Conscription (Utskrivning)	264
	Selection (Utskott)	265
4	The Conscriptions	267
	The Decisions and their Legitimation	267
	The Riksdag as a Forum of Negotiation and as a Decision-Making Body	267
	The Principles for Conscription	268
	The Organizers and the System of Rules	268
	Local Preparation and Co-Workers	269
	The Summons	270
	The Registers and their Inspection	270
	The Conscription Meetings	272
	The Meeting	272
	The Division into Rotar	272
	The Automatically Qualified Soldiers and Privileged Groups	273
	Enrollment of Soldiers: Procedure and Criteria	274
	The Follow-Up	275
5	Infantry Recruitment in two Local Communities	279
	The Selection	279
	Kalajoki and Säminge during the Age of Greatness	279
	Kalajoki	279
	Säminge	280
	The Result of the Conscription Meetings	282
	The Soldier Roundabout	285
	Service	291
	Replacements and Hiring	292
	Desertion and Contumacy	294
	Discharges	295
6	The Adaptation	297
	Hiring of Soldiers	297
	Exemption because of Tar-Distillation	298
	The Effects of Adaptation	301
7	The Protestation	304
	Desertion as a Form of Protestation	304
	The Counter-Measures and Failure of the Central Power	305
	Other Forms of Protestation	308
8	Conclusions	310

V CONCLUSIONS

By Øystein Rian 315

Chronology and Politics 319

Constitutions and Administration 324

The Cost of Sovereignty 329

The Limits of the Power State 339

Epilogue 342

VI Bibliography 343

Unpublished Sources 345

Published Sources, Unpublished and Published Literature 346

Indexes 373

By Christian Larsen

Index of Names 373

Index of Places 377

Glossary of Recurrent Scandinavian Terms 380