

Contents

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART I: REALISM AND ITS CRITICS

1. The Non-cognitivist Challenge	13
I. What Moral Realism Is	13
II. The Non-cognitivist Challenge	18
III. A Critique of Non-cognitivism	22
IV. Conclusion	37
2. The Constructivist Challenge	39
I. Subjectivism and Objectivism	39
II. Moral and Non-moral Constraints	41
III. Four Constructivist Critiques	44
IV. Conclusion	51

PART II: MORAL METAPHYSICS

3. Ethical Non-naturalism	55
I. Moore's Argument	56
II. Naturalism and Non-naturalism	58
III. Against Classical Naturalism	65
IV. Non-naturalistic Metaphysics	72
V. Conclusion	79
4. Supervenience and Causation	80
I. Metaphysical Worries	80
II. The First Supervenience Argument	84
III. The Second Supervenience Argument	89
IV. The Causal Argument	98
V. Conclusion	114

PART III: MORAL MOTIVATION

- 5. Motivational Humeanism 119
 - I. The Non-cognitivist Argument 119
 - II. The Attractions of Anti-Humeanism 122
 - III. Five Humean Arguments 127
 - IV. Conclusion 140
- 6. Motivational Judgement Internalism 142
 - I. A Taxonomy of Internalisms 142
 - II. The Amoralist 145
 - III. An Objection 147
 - IV. The Examples 148
 - V. Internalist Worries 155
 - VI. Conclusion 161

PART IV: MORAL REASONS

- 7. Reasons Internalism 165
 - I. The Scope of Practical Reason 165
 - II. Varieties of Reasons Internalism 171
 - III. Arguments for Reasons Internalism 176
 - IV. Two Arguments against Internalism 185
 - V. Conclusion 188
- 8. Moral Rationalism 190
 - I. Realism and Rationalism 190
 - II. A Presumptive Argument for Moral Rationalism 192
 - III. Four Antirationalist Arguments 193
 - IV. Partners in Crime 209
 - V. Conclusion 211
- 9. Rationality and Disagreement 215
 - I. The Argument from Disagreement 215
 - II. Explaining Actual Disagreement 218
 - III. Explaining Hypothesized Disagreement 221
 - IV. Conclusion 227

PART V: MORAL KNOWLEDGE

10. Moral Scepticism	231
I. The Master Argument	231
II. Realism and Epistemic Inaccessibility	232
III. Four Sceptical Arguments	235
IV. Believing Where We Cannot Prove	241
V. Conclusion	245
11. The Justification of Moral Principles	247
I. The Appeal to Self-Evidence	247
II. Objections to Self-Evidence	250
III. Conclusion	265
12. The Justification of Verdictive Beliefs	267
I. Three Models of Ethical Theory	267
II. Moral Reliabilism	272
III. Objections to Moral Reliabilism	275
IV. Identifying Reliable Processes: Some Preliminaries	293
V. Identifying Reliable Processes: The Role of Exemplars	296
VI. Conclusion	300
References	303
Index	313