

Contents

Notes on contributors	vii
Series editors' introduction	xi
Foreword: Dare we hope for the erotic? HIV/AIDS, sexuality and ageing by OmiSoore H. Dryden	xxi
Introduction	1
Mark Henrickson, Casey Charles, Shiv Ganesh, Sulaimon Giwa, Kan Diana Kwok and Tetyana Semigina
Part I Women
1 The 'disease of love': trajectories of women ageing with HIV in Switzerland Vanessa Fagnoli	11
2 Beyond the biomedical: HIV as a barrier to intimacy for older women living with HIV in the United Kingdom Jacqui Stevenson	28
3 'Everyone is on their own and nobody needs us': women ageing with HIV in Ukraine Tetyana Semigina, Tetiana Yurochko and Yulia Stopolyanska	46
Part II Gay and bisexual men
4 Chemsex among gay men living with HIV aged over 45 in England and Italy: sociality and pleasure in times of undetectability Cesare Di Felicianantonio	67
5 Freed from fear: reconstructing older gay male sexuality through PrEP – an account of a generational experience Jacek Kolodziej	84
6 In the company of men: gay culture and HIV in Aotearoa New Zealand Michael Stevens	102
7 Growing old with stigma: a case study of four older Chinese gay/bisexual men living with HIV in Hong Kong Barry Man Wai Lee 李文偉	114
Part III Intersectional lives, multiple stigmas
8 Out in Africa: facing the HIV other in Nairobi Casey Charles	139
9 Survival of an older Bangladeshi lesbian experiencing intersectional vulnerability Kanamik Kani Khan	159

10	Sanjeevani: early ageing and HIV survival in queer Mumbai Casey Charles	174
	Afterword Mark Henrickson	191
	Index	194