

Contents

Notes on editors and contributors	ix
Series editors' introduction	xiii
Foreword by Ketki Ranade	xxv
1 Introduction to volume two: themes, issues and chapter synopses Paul Simpson, Paul Reynolds and Trish Hafford-Letchfield	1
2 Consent and sexual literacy for older people Paul Reynolds	17
3 'At YOUR age???!!!': the constraints of ageist erotophobia on older people's sexual and intimate relationships Paul Simpson	35
4 The aesthetic(s) of eroticism in later life Ricardo Iacub and Feliciano Villar	53
5 Menopause and the 'menoboom': how older women are desexualised by culture Clare Anderson	77
6 Ageing, physical disability and desexualisation Susan Gillen and Paul Reynolds	95
7 Ageing, intellectual disability and desexualisation Susan Gillen and Paul Reynolds	117
8 Dancing in- or out-of-step? Sexual and intimate relationships among heterosexual couples living with Alzheimer's disease Linn J. Sandberg	135
9 Older people living in long-term care: no place for old sex? Feliciano Villar and Josep Fabà	153
10 Ageing and the LGBTI+ community: a case study of Australian care policy Jane Youell	171

11	The role of professionals and service providers in supporting sexuality and intimacy in later life: theoretical and practice perspectives Trish Hafford-Letchfield	191
12	Final reflections: themes and issues arising from the volume on desexualisation in later life Paul Simpson, Trish Hafford-Letchfield and Paul Reynolds	211
	Index	221