

Contents

List of illustrations	viii
Notes on contributors	xi
Preface	xiv
Note on the text	xv
1 Introduction: the state of convergence in media and communication research	1
Klaus Bruhn Jensen
 PART I – HISTORY: SOURCES OF MEDIA AND COMMUNICATION RESEARCH
2 The humanistic sources of media and communication research	25
Klaus Bruhn Jensen
3 The social-scientific sources of media and communication research	54
Michael Meyen
 PART II – SYSTEMATICS: PROCESSES OF COMMUNICATION
Media organizations
4 The production of entertainment media	75
Amanda D. Lotz and Horace Newcomb
5 News production	93
Folker Hanusch and Phoebe Maares
Media texts
6 Analysing news discourse	112
Darren Kelsey and Lyndon Way

7	Mediated fiction Kay Richardson	136
	Media users
8	Media effects: quantitative traditions Klaus Bruhn Jensen	156
9	Media reception: qualitative traditions Klaus Bruhn Jensen	177
	Media contexts
10	Communication in contexts: beyond mass-interpersonal and online-offline divides Klaus Bruhn Jensen	193
11	The cultural contexts of media and communication Klaus Bruhn Jensen	213
12	History, communication, and media Janice Peck	232
	PART III – PRACTICE: SCIENTIFIC APPROACHES AND SOCIAL APPLICATIONS	253
	Empirical research designs
13	Quantitative approaches to media and communication research Jacob Ørmen	255
14	The qualitative research process Klaus Bruhn Jensen	286
15	Digital methods for media and communication research Rasmus Helles	307
16	The complementarity of qualitative and quantitative methodologies in media and communication research Klaus Bruhn Jensen	328
	Multiple media, multiple methods
17	Personal media in everyday life: a baseline study Rasmus Helles	349
18	Media industries and audience research: an analytic dialogue on the value of engagement Annette Hill	368

19	Employing media-rich participatory action research to foster youth voice	388
	Lynn Schofield Clark and Margie Thompson
	Communicating research
20	The social origins and uses of media and communication research	411
	Klaus Bruhn Jensen
	References	434
	Index	495