

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi

PART I: THE OLD CONSTITUTION

1 A Peculiar Constitution	3
2 The Old Constitution Under Strain	23

PART II: THE NEW CONSTITUTION

3 The Human Rights Act: Cornerstone of the New Constitution	53
4 Devolution	89
5 Hung Parliaments: Governing Without a Majority	121
6 A Reformed House of Lords?	145
7 The Referendum	173
8 The New Government of London	197
9 Towards a Written Constitution?	215

PART III: BEYOND THE NEW CONSTITUTION

10 A New Localism?	235
11 The Constitutional State	271
12 Towards a Popular Constitutional State: Democracy and Participation	291
Index	311