

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	xi
1. The General Election of 2010 and the Formation of the Coalition	1
I. Outcome of the Election	1
II. A Hung Parliament	9
III. A Hung Parliament and the Constitution	11
2. Formation of the Coalition	25
I. The Politics of Coalition Formation	25
II. The Electoral Geography of Coalition Formation	40
3. Governing with a Coalition	45
I. The Structure of the Coalition	45
II. Agreements to Differ	51
III. The Coalition and the Civil Service	54
IV. Types of Coalition	56
4. 'England Does Not Love Coalitions'	61
I. Coalitions in Peacetime	61
II. Electoral Pacts	71
III. Grass-Roots Hostility to Coalitions	76
5. Electoral Reform and the Alternative Vote	81
I. Reducing the Number of MPs	81
II. More Frequent Boundary Reviews	84
III. The Referendum on the Alternative Vote	89
IV. The Working of the Alternative Vote	95
V. Some Possible Consequences of the Alternative Vote	98
6. Fixed-Term Parliaments	107
I. Experience of Fixed-Term Parliaments	107
II. Thresholds for Dissolution	109
III. The Constructive Vote of No Confidence	112
IV. Effects of the Fixed-Term Parliaments Act	114

7. A New World? Multi-Party Politics and Coalition Government	123
I. A Series of Hung Parliaments?	123
II. Consequences of Hung Parliaments	128
III. A Directly Elected Second Chamber	132
IV. A Constitution for a Post-Bureaucratic Age	135
Index	145