

CONTENTS

Introduction: Where Judicial Politics Are Legislative Politics, 3

I Inventing Constitutional Review in France

1. The Historical Tension: Politics v. le droit, 23
2. From Watchdog to Policymaker: Structure, Function, Mandate, 46
3. From Watchdog to Policymaker: The Evolution of Constitutional Review, 60
4. Understanding French Constitutional Politics, 93

II Policymaking in the Shadow of the Constitutional Council

5. The Juridicized Policymaking Process, 119
6. The Council Legislates: Nationalization and Privatization Policy, 140
7. The Council Legislates: In Search of Media Pluralism, 173
8. The Third Chamber Model: A Review and Defense, 209

III Toward a Comparative Understanding of Judicial Review

9. West European Constitutional Courts in Comparative Perspective, 225

Appendix A: Constitution Provisions Relevant to the Constitutional Council, 255

Appendix B: Texts Incorporated Into the Constitution of 4 October 1958 by the Constitutional Council's Decision of 16 July 1971 (Freedom of Association), 257

Notes, 261

References, 297

Index, 307