

CONTENTS

	page
Foreword to the second edition .....	7
Foreword to the first edition .....	9
Part 1: Introduction.....	11
1. Aims, objectives and working methods .....	13
2. Working definitions .....	15
Part 2: Legislation to counter discrimination against persons with disabilities: comparative analysis .....	19
I. General remarks .....	21
1. Terminology .....	23
2. Possible ways of improving the situation of persons with disabilities .....	29
II. Status of anti-discrimination laws in the member states .....	32
1. Anti-discrimination rules in written constitutions .....	32
2. Anti-discrimination rules outside written constitutions ...	37
3. Preferential treatment arrangements .....	44
4. Compatibility of preferential treatment arrangements with constitutional anti-discrimination rules .....	49
5. Enforcement of anti-discrimination legislation and preferential treatment arrangements .....	51
6. Recent and proposed national legislation .....	52

III. Policy areas examined .....	62
1. Education (including school and university education) ...	62
2. Mobility (including access to public transport) .....	73
3. Accessibility of the built environment (including public buildings, private buildings open to the public and private buildings) .....	78
4. Vocational guidance, vocational training and employment .....	83
5. Technical aids .....	99
6. Leisure, sports and culture .....	101
7. Sexual discrimination (including sexual violence, violence against persons in institutions, the right to found a family and the right to maternity and paternity).....	102
8. Income (from the viewpoint of economic independence and equality of opportunity, excluding social allowances) .....	104
9. Medical care .....	108
10. Other services available to the public (including insurance) .....	109
11. Access to information (including information technology) .....	111
 Part 3: Analysis of the position of international non-governmental organisations .....	 113
I. Principles and observations .....	115
II. Anti-discrimination laws .....	116
III. Other strategies for eliminating discrimination against persons with disabilities .....	118
IV. Specific areas .....	118
1. Accessibility .....	118
2. Education and training .....	118

3. Employment and new technologies .....	119
4. Medical care .....	120
5. Sexual discrimination .....	120
 Part 4: Conclusions .....	 121
 Appendices .....	 127
Appendix 1: Various aspects of discrimination: reflections of the working group .....	129
Appendix 2: Members of the working group .....	135