

Contents

Foreword VII

Ineta Ziemele

1 Introduction 1

1 Conclusions 14

2 Understanding and Types of General Principles of Law 15

1 Definition 15

2 The Origin of General Principles of Law and Basic Groups of Meaning of Law 22

2.1 The Origin of the Understanding of General Principles of Law 22

2.2 The Doctrine of Legal Positivism and General Principles of Law 23

2.3 The Doctrine of Natural Law and General Principles of Law 23

2.4 Contemporary Legal Theory Pertaining to Democratic States Based on the Rule of Law and General Principles of Law 24

3 General Principles of Law and Legal Norms 33

4 Types of General Principles of Law 41

4.1 Positivation of General Principles of Law 42

4.2 Derived and Discovered General Principles of Law 47

5 Conclusions 52

3 The Axiological Meaning of General Principles of Law 54

1 Meaning of General Principles of Law in the Variety of Sources of Law 54

1.1 Significance of the Variety of Sources of Law in the Western Legal System 54

1.2 Normative Legal Regulation of Sources of Law in Latvia 58

1.3 Division of Sources of Law in Latvia 60

1.4 Hierarchy of Independent Sources of Law in Latvia 65

2 Importance of the General Principles of Law in Drafting Normative Legal Acts 67

3 The Role of General Principles of Law in the Application of Legal Norms 80

4 Conclusions 87

4	The Functional Effect of General Principles of Law	88
1	Application of General Principles of Law	88
1.1	Deriving, Discovering and Concretization	89
1.2	Solving of Mutual Collisions	108
1.3	Evaluative Subsumption	115
2	The Impact of General Principles of Law on the Application of Written Legal Norms	123
2.1	Collisions and Validity	123
2.2	Interpretation	127
2.3	Further Development of Law	129
2.4	Elaboration of Decision	139
3	Conclusions	146
	Bibliography	149
	Index of Names and Subjects	163