

Contents

List of Figures	x
Abbreviations	xii
Introduction	xviii
1. Beginnings, to 325	I
The Ministry and Death of Christ	I
From Jerusalem to Aelia	4
Was there a Cult of the Tomb of Jesus in the First Centuries?	7
Jerusalem Lost	13
2. Consequences of Constantine, 325–350	16
Discoveries: The Holy Sepulchre	16
Discoveries: The Wood of the Cross	21
Discoveries: Calvary	24
Authenticity	28
The Buildings	31
Visitors to the Holy Sepulchre	38
3. Dissemination: The Spread of Interest in Western Europe, 350–600	41
Pilgrimage to the Holy Sepulchre under the Christian Empire	41
Holy Places in Christian Thinking	47
Bringing the Holy Sepulchre to the West	58
The Holy Sepulchre and Christian Symbolism	67
The Wood of the Cross Comes to the West	77
The Influence of Liturgy	85
4. The Frankish Kingdoms and the Carolingians, 600–1000	90
Jerusalem under Muslim Supremacy	90
Expectation	99
Pilgrimage to the Holy Sepulchre, 600–1000	102
Jerusalem and the Carolingian Liturgy	107
Buildings	115
Commemorations of the Holy Sepulchre	120
Relics of the Cross and Passion	128

5.	Towards the First Crusade	134
	The Consequences of Caliph al-Hakim	134
	'An innumerable multitude'	139
	Relics, the Wood of the Cross, and Personal Devotion	146
	New Versions of the Sepulchre	153
	War against Saracens	165
	The First Crusade	172
6.	Latin Jerusalem, 1099-1187	180
	Introduction	180
	The Liberation of the Holy Sepulchre	181
	'A new day'	184
	Rebuilding Zion	189
	Pilgrims	200
	The Development of Crusading Ideas	205
	'Mixing knighthood with religion'	209
7.	Christendom Refashioned	219
	The Sense of Christendom	219
	Memorials in the West: Relics	223
	Commemorations of the Holy Sepulchre	230
	The Internal Pilgrimage	245
	The Threat to the Holy Sepulchre	252
8.	Failure and Endeavour, 1187-1291	254
	Jerusalem Lost	254
	The Thirteenth-Century Reassessment	260
	The Passion and Sepulchre in the Holy Nation	283
9.	The 'Great Pilgrimage' in the Later Middle Ages, 1291-1530	295
	The Way of War and the Way of Peace	295
	The 'Great Pilgrimage', 1330-1530	306
	The Literature of Pilgrimage	310
	Centre and Circumference	323
10.	Sepulchres and Calvaries, 1291-1530	328
	'A long way from Jerusalem'	328
	Sacred Societies	336
	'The exact design and measurement of the Holy Sepulchre'	345
	Stations of the Cross and Holy Mountains	359
11.	The End of the Pilgrimage, 1530-1630	363
	'The pilgrimage in danger'	363

The Pattern of Decline	366
The Survival of Pilgrimage Literature	369
Spiritual Pilgrimage	371
Kingly Powers and the End of the Crusades	376

Bibliography	384
Index	411