

Contents

Foreword	James Haywood Rolling Jr.	ix
Preface	Connie Stewart	xi
Acknowledgments		xiii
Introduction	Connie Stewart, Eli Burke, Lisa Hochtritt, and Toya Northington	1
PART I. CONVERSATIONS IN ART EDUCATIONAL SETTINGS
1. Exploring Debatable Topics With Divergent Thinking Strategies: A Visual Narrative	Rebecca Shipe	7
2. Let's Talk: Engaging in Critical Conversations in the Art Room	Amy Pfeiler-Wunder and Mary Kate Bergh	11
3. Children Can Talk About Hard Things	Kimberly Lane	16
4. Investigating Contemporary Art in the Elementary Classroom	Amy Felder	19
5. Challenging Content and Critical Conversations in the Classroom	Kryssi Staikidis	21
6. "Yes, and . . ." Extending Conversations in Art Classrooms	Nikki Sandschaper	26
7. Challenging Implicit Bias: Using Contemporary Art to Understand the Power of Personal Autonomy	Kristin A. Ponden	27
8. Approaching a Liberatory Future of Museum Education: Reflections on Practice and Pedagogy	Ariana Robles, Amara Higuera, Gladys Preciado, and Alice Bebbington	29
9. Addressing Facilitator Power in Youth Museum Programs	Simona Zappas	32

10. Rethinking Feelings in Antiracist Art Pedagogy	34
Injeong Yoon-Ramirez
11. Shifting the Conversation: Scaffolding Sociocultural Dialogue in the Elementary Art Classroom	38
Beth Link
12. Artistic Responses to Race	42
Naomi Lifschitz-Grant, Robb Epps, and Taylor Styles
13. Using Group Reflection and Dialogue as Tools for Antiracist Teaching	49
Amanda Tobin Ripley, Hannah Heller, and Michelle Antonisse
14. Shaming Queerness in Art Spaces: Would You Change That If You Could?	52
Libya Doman
15. Rethinking Disability in Art Classrooms	55
Kelly M. Gross

PART II. STRUCTURING THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT FOR OPEN DISCUSSION

16. Creating Spaces to Support Difficult Dialogues	59
Lisa Hochtritt
17. Centering Culture Through Critical Conversations	63
Katie Coogan and Margaret Walker
18. Conversations Over Wi-Fi: Reorienting Student-Centered Art Discussions Online	66
Ashley Mask
19. Building Community by Using Opening and Closing Circles	69
Valeska Maria Populoh
20. Gallery Art Hive as Dialogic Space	72
Natasha S. Reid
21. Artists as Activists: Engaging Middle School Artists in Creating Art That Matters	74
Julie Toole
22. Finding the Hidden Questions	77
Alice C. Pennisi
23. Talking About Art: When Questions Are the Answer	79
Erica Richard

24. Critical Conversations in Conservative Communities	80
Kelly Beach and Dianna Montano, with Connie Stewart
25. Facilitating Dialogue About Loss and Grief in the Gallery	82
Harrison Orr and Carissa DiCindio
26. How Superficial Themes in the Art Classroom Can Erase the Narrative of Marginalized Students and Communities	85
Ketal Patel
27. Problematizing Conversations: Creating Art to Engage in Difficult Discussions	88
William Estrada
28. Two Colleagues Talk About Care: Responding to the Emotional States of Our Students	91
Chris Cain and John Humphrey, with Connie Stewart
PART III. INVITING REFLECTIVE STORIES
29. A Not-So-Queer Education	95
Eli Burke
30. Story as Pedagogy: Narrative Co-Inquiry With Teachers, Students, and Communities	98
Pamela Harris Lawton
31. Generating LGBTQ+ Community Through Dialogue	100
Adam J. Greteman, Nic M. Weststrate, and Karen Morris
32. Power Play in the Art Critique	104
Kerry Downey and Aparna Sarkar
33. Negotiating White Privilege in a Visual Culture Intervention	107
Lisa Novak and Breckon Chastain
34. Critical Conversations in Art History: The State of the Field From Students' Perspectives	110
Rebecka Black, Aiyana Cady-Alviar, Damaria Moye, and Denise Zubizarreta
35. Opening a Conversation About Adoption Through the Artwork of JooYoung Choi	113
Borim Song
36. Art and Compassionate Dialogue: Finding and Giving Voice Through Intuitive Knowing and Artistic Research	117
Rébecca Bourgault and Catherine Rosamond

37. Questioning White Privilege Through Contemporary Art	120
Donalyn Heise and Alisse Guerra
38. Investigations of Racism Through a Hexagon Project in an Online College Art Methods Course	122
JaeHan Bae
39. Giving Voice to the Story of Migration	125
Naomi Lifschitz-Grant, Allison Ellis, and Catherine Holmes
40. Fifth Dimension Discourse: Afrofuturism and the Creation of Brave Spaces in Art Teaching	128
Kathy J. Brown and Lauren Cross
41. Start Where You Are	133
Toya Northington
Resources That Inspire	137
About the Editors and Contributors	145
Index	153