

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	ix
Introduction: Censorship and freedom of expression in turbulent times John Steel and Julian Petley	1
PART I
Concepts and histories	11
1 Freedom of expression as a pre-Enlightenment concept Jordi Pujol	13
2 Freedom of expression, the Enlightenment and the liberal tradition Geoff Kemp	23
3 Histories of in/tolerance Russell Blackford	36
4 Literary influence and legal precedent: Censorship in the Court of Chancery, 1710–1823 Paul Whickman	46
5 The limits of Mill's case for free discussion Kristoffer Ahlstrom-Vij	56
6 Autonomy and freedom of expression Eric Barendt	66

7	Bentham and security against “misrule” Jesse Owen Hearn-Branaman	75
8	Freedom of expression in the twentieth century Sue Curry Jansen	85
9	Philosophies of censorship and control Eric Barendt	96
PART II
	Global perspectives	107
10	Freedom of expression in Latin America in times of populism: Between Western normative expectations and the complexities on the ground Ezequiel Korin and Jairo Lugo-Ocando	109
11	Protecting the pandemic press: Exploring press freedom in Africa during the COVID-19 era Bruce Mutsvairo and Kristin Skare Orgeret	119
12	Freedom of speech in the Arab region Noha Mellor	128
13	Censorship and freedom of expression in China “Chris” Fei Shen and Weiying Shi	138
14	Between speech freedom and national interests: The contested boundaries of online freedom of expression in China Yuan Zeng and Tongzhou Ran	153
15	Conservative sensibilities and freedom of expression in Japan: A brief historical overview Ryusaku Yamada	163
16	Freedom of expression in French laws and society Imen Neffati	173
17	Faith and toleration in neoliberal times: Australia as a Case Study Adam Possamai	183

PART III

Key controversies	193
18 The harm in hate speech and in Holocaust denial Raphael Cohen-Almagor	195
19 The regulation of pornography, obscenity and indecency in UK law Julian Petley	208
20 Political correctness: The Right's Favourite Bugaboo Valerie Scatamburlo-D'Annibale	222
21 Free speech, "Cancel culture" and the "War on woke" John Steel	232
22 Academic freedom and constrained expression Thomas Docherty	245
23 Breaking news – media freedom in crisis Simon Dawes	254
24 P2P speech regulation: Gossip, reputation and norm policing on social media Julie Seaman	262
25 Vitriol and voice: Battlegrounds to control employee expression on social media in work Claire Taylor	274
26 Hack attacks: How cyber intimidation and conspiracy theories drive the spiral of "secrecy hacking" Emma L. Briant	285
27 Violence, impunity and their impact on press freedom Lada Trifonova Price	296

PART IV

Institutions, technologies and frameworks	307
28 Online censorship: The role of the intermediaries Julian Petley	309

29	Freedom of expression and human rights: Interrogating the focus at Strasbourg on political expression under Article 10 ECHR Helen Fenwick	324
30	Balancing public and private interests in freedom of expression: A case study of Whistleblower Protection in the case law of the European Court of Human Rights Dimitrios Kagiros	334
31	Crying wolf: Invoking “national security” as grounds for censorship Paul Lashmar	346
32	Marketing communications and media: Commercial Speech, Censorship and Control Jonathan Hardy	358
33	The regulation of the press: Some considerations on principles and power Tom O'Malley	368
34	Freedom of the press in Britain: From radical to reactionary...to reinvigoration? Aaron Ackerley	379
35	“Should I stay (on X) or should I go?” Three causes of journalistic self-censorship on X Chrysi Dagoula	389
36	All the news that's fit to report? News values and the “free press” Tony Harcup	399
	Index	409