

CONTENTS

Preface ix

Part I: Normative Foundations

1. Privacies Not Wanted 3

Everyday Meanings of Privacy 4

Privacy Law 5

Are Paternalistic Privacy Policies Justifiable? 6

A Right to Waive Privacy Protection? 8

Why Impose Unpopular Privacy? 9

Feminist Skepticism 11

Libertarian Skepticism 12

The Context 13

Neglected Rights, Forgotten Duties 18

Opportunity Imperative or Experience Imperative? 20

Justification and Practical Limits 21

Constraining State Domination 23

Conclusion 25

Part II: Physical Privacies: Seclusion and Concealment

2. Seclusion 29

Solitude 29

Getting Away, Hiding Out 30

Stuck at Home: Flaneur and Hausfrau 31

Sanctuary 33

Interrupted: Do Not Call 34

Put Away: Imprisonment 37

Shut Away: Quarantine 41

Conclusion 45

3. Modesty 47

Muslims in America 48

The Hijab in France	50
Undressing Women or Addressing Social Problems?	53
The Niqab in America	55
Modesty, the Analysis	60
General Modesty	60
Bodily (and Sexual) Modesty	62
Modesty Rights	65
Religious Freedom	66
Individuality	67
Uniformity and Public Service	69
A Peculiar Modesty Bias in US Law	70
A "Compelling State Interest"	72
Conclusion	77

4. Nudity 78

The Barnes Case: Legal Moralism	79
City of Erie: The Harm Principle	84
Canadian Cases	86
R. v. Tremblay: Community Tolerance	88
R. v. Mara: Look, Don't Touch	89
Modesty on the Run	91
Conditions of Work	93
Mutual Disrespect	93
Conclusion	95

Part III: Information Privacies: Confidentiality and Data Protection

5. Confidentiality 99

The Practice of Confidentiality	100
Relationships and Occupations	101
Documents, Records, Spaces	102
Overlapping and Conflicting Directives	103
Law, Coercion, and Justice	104
Lawmaking as Practical Compromise	104
Sanction and Deterrence	105
The Right to Say What You Know	105
Paid-for Silence	106
Flourishing in a Free Society	108

Confidentiality in Context	110
Healthcare	111
Laws Mandating Health Privacy	113
Mental Health	116
Waiver	118
Exception	120
Conclusion	121
6. Racial Privacy	123
What Is Sensitive Data?	123
A Missing Jurisprudence	125
An Unpopular Referendum	130
Recognition in the Courtroom	132
Profiling in New Hampshire	132
Lessons from Georgia	134
Politics and Race in Illinois	137
Racial Privacy Outweighed	139
Ambivalence and Paradox	140
Secrets and Sensitivities	141
Persecution	144
Political Liberalism: The Question of Impartiality	145
Private Association and Civil Rights	150
Conclusion	155
7. The Electronic Data Give-Away	156
The Federal Privacy Statutes	156
Many Statutes, Inadequate Protection?	157
Practical Obscurity: A Swan Song After the Web	162
Give Away, Take Away	162
Lifelogs: Remembering Everything	163
Conclusion: Caring About Not Caring About Privacy	171
8. Popular Paternalism	173
Paternalistic Mandates	173
A Job for the Nanny State	175
The Children's Internet Privacy Law	177
Fair Information Practices	178
A Law in Action	179

Why Age Thirteen?	181
Is the Paternalism Justified?	183
Do Young Adults Need Paternalistic Laws, Too?	190

Afterword	195
-----------	-----

Notes	199
-------	-----

Index	249
-------	-----