

Contents

Part I: LIVING IN THE PRESENT

- |  |    |
|--|----|
| 1. The Moment and the Millennium                         | 3  |
| 2. The Age of the New                                    | 17 |
| 3. Constitutional Self-Government on the Model of Speech | 45 |
| 4. The Antinomies of Speech-Modeled Self-Government      | 74 |

Part II: BEING OVER TIME

- |                     |     |
|---------------------|-----|
| 5. Commitment       | 91  |
| 6. Reason Over Time | 103 |
| 7. Being Over Time  | 131 |
| 8. Popularity       | 145 |

Part III: CONSTITUTIONALISM AS DEMOCRACY

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 9. Constitutionalism as Democracy  | 163 |
| 10. Reading the Constitution as Written: Paradigm CaseInterpretation | 178 |
| 11. Sex Discrimination and Race Preferences                              | 196 |
| 12. The Right of Privacy   | 221 |

- |       |     |
|-------|-----|
| Index | 256 |
|-------|-----|