

Contents

---

Preface and acknowledgements	vii
Contributors	ix
 Introduction: approaching green criminology	 xiii
Piers Beirne and Nigel South
 Part I Introduction to green criminology
1 Ecology, community and justice: the meaning of green Ted Benton	3
2 Green criminology and the pursuit of social and ecological justice Rob White	32
3 Animal rights, animal abuse and green criminology Piers Beirne	55
 Part II Animal rights and animal abuse
4 Labelling animals: non-speciesist criminology and techniques to identify other animals Geertrui Cazaux	87
5 Vivisection: the case for abolition Tom Regan	114

- |   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 6 | Debating 'animal rights' online:the movement-counter movement dialectic revisitedRoger Yates | 140 |
|---|---|-----|

Part III Ecological systems and environmental harms

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 7  | 'At risk': climate change and its bearing onwomen's vulnerability to male violenceSandra Wachholz                      | 161 |
| 8  | Crime, regulation and radioactive waste in theUnited KingdomReece Walters  | 186 |
| 9  | Food crimeHazel Croall   | 206 |
| 10 | The 'corporate colonisation of nature': bio-prospecting,bio-piracy and the development of green criminologyNigel South | 230 |
| 11 | Green criminology in the United StatesMichael J. Lynch and Paul Stretesky  | 248 |
| 12 | Non-compliance in small-scale fisheries: a threatto security?Maria Hauck   | 270 |
|    | Webliography   | 290 |
|    | Index  | 301 |