
Table of Contents

List of Contributors	xv
Preface	xvii
Acknowledgments	XXII
PART I—AN INTRODUCTION TO THE STUDY OF ENVIRONMENTAL CRIME	1
Chapter 1—Defining “Environmental Crime”	5
Mary Clifford and Terry D. Edwards
Environmental Crime, Criminology, and White-Collar Crime	6
On Developing a Theory of Environmental Crime	12
Insight—Love Canal	13
Environmental Crime As a Philosophical Concept	15
Insight—Bug Smuggling: An Environmental Crime?	16
Environmental Crime As a Legal Concept	21
Can a Definition of Environmental Crime Be Achieved?	21
Insight—Can Corporations Be Environmental Criminals? ...	22
Conclusion	25
Review Questions	27
Discussion Questions	27

Chapter 2—A History of the U.S. Environmental Movement	31
Sally M. Edwards
Early Environmental Actions	32
Teddy Roosevelt and the Progressive Conservation Movement	37
Insight—Our National Parks	38
The Apex of the Conservation Movement	41
The Postwar Era: The Rise of the Modern Environmental Movement	42
Insight—Greenpeace International Strikes Again	45
Fissures in the Environmental Movement: 1970s and 1980s	46
The Modern Environmental Movement	46
The Future of the Environmental Movement in the United States	50
Insight—Direct Action Can Be Deadly	51
Review Questions	52
Discussion Questions	52
 Chapter 3—Economics, Politics, and Environmental Protection	 57
Mary Clifford
The Production Process	58
Economics	60
Insight—Can Computers Be Environmentally Friendly?	61
Politics	63
Insight—Should Plastics Be Banned?	64
The Relationship between Economics, Politics, and the Environment	69
Review Questions	72
Discussion Questions	72
 Chapter 4—A Social Understanding of the Natural Sciences	 77
Gary Walker
The Earth As a Living System	77
Insight—Rare Plant Conservation: “Why Are We Worrying about It?”	80
Insight—Invasive Exotics: The Invasion of the Alien Plant Species	82
The Scientific Method	85

The Limitations of Scientific Expertise	87
Can the Public Access Expert Studies?	88
Insight—Krakatau: Island or Volcanic Remains?	89
Conclusion	92
Review Questions	93
Discussion Questions	93
Chapter 5—A Review of Federal Environmental Legislation	95
Mary Clifford
Procedural Laws and Agency Directives	96
Environmental Protection and the Natural Environment	99
Constitutional Limitations, Common Law Doctrines, and Common Law Remedies	105
Criminal Provisions in Environmental Statutes	106
Review Questions	107
Discussion Questions	107
Part I Conclusion	111
PART II—ENFORCING ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION LEGISLATION: AN INTERAGENCY APPROACH	113
Chapter 6—The Federal Environmental Regulatory Structure ...	115
Bill Hyatt
An Introduction to the Regulatory Function	116
A History of the Environmental Protection Agency	117
Enforcement Options for Environmental Violations	128
Procedural Issues for Federal Environmental Enforcement	134
Insight—Poaching the Black Rhino in Africa May Be Deadly—for the Poachers	135
Conclusion	138
Review Questions	139
Discussion Questions	139
Appendix 6—A EPA Regional Offices	143
Chapter 7—State and Local Environmental Enforcement	145
Joel Epstein
The Legal Context of Environmental Enforcement	146

Genesis of the Law Enforcement Response	147
Overview of the Law	147
Insight—Citizens in Cairo Asked To “Hush up—or Else” ...	151
Types of Environmental Crime	154
Insight—Unscrupulous Waste Haulers Keep on Truckin’ ...	156
Insight—Tire Fires: A Cause of Concern for All	159
Organization of the Law Enforcement Response	160
Situating the Environmental Crimes Response	161
Conclusion	165
Review Questions	166
Discussion Questions	166
 Chapter 8—Policing the Environment	169
Tim Carter
Proactive versus Reactive Enforcement Strategies	170
Identifying Environmental Criminals	172
Detecting Environmental Crime	177
Insight—Police Are Vulnerable As First Responders	184
Investigating Environmental Crime	186
Training and Agency Resources	192
Insight—A Minnesota Sting: But Who Got Burned?	193
Conclusion	197
Review Questions	197
Discussion Questions	198
 Chapter 9—Environmental Crime Prosecution at the County
Level	205
Donald J. Rebovich
The Study	206
Creating a Presence: Goals and Objectives of County
Task Forces	208
Task Force Structure and Administration	209
Insight—If You Take Direct Action, You May Get
SLAPPED.	210
The Importance of Vertical and Horizontal
Communication	212
Prosecutorial Decision Making	214
Trial Issues: Judge and Jury Concerns	217
Presenting Evidence	219
The Role of Expertise	220

Insight—Princess Cruises into Ocean Dumping Charge	221
Playing the Remediation Card	222
Training and Technical Assistance	223
Conclusion	225
Review Questions	225
Discussion Questions	226
Chapter 10—Sentencing the Environmental Criminal	229
Mark A. Cohen
The Role of Criminal Sanctions	230
Can Environmental Violations Be Overcriminalized? . . .	232
Insight—Juvenile Treatment Goes Green	233
Criminal Provisions for Environmental Offenses	234
Sanctions for Environmental Criminals	235
Insight—Panda Pelts Can Bring Prison Time	238
Insight—The Kepone Disaster	242
Is the United States Overcriminalizing Environmental Violations?	243
What Is Wrong with Overcriminalizing Environmental Violations?	245
Review Questions	246
Discussion Questions	246
Part II Conclusion	251
PART III—IDENTIFYING ESSENTIAL CONNECTIONS	253
Chapter 11—Five Types of Environmental Criminals	255
Mark Seis
Federal Environmental Offenders	255
Insight—Reproductive Problems Linked to Chemical Exposure?	258
The Problem of Prosecuting Federal Agencies	259
State Government Environmental Offenders	260
Prosecution of State Government Environmental Offenders	262
Municipal Government Environmental Offenders	263
Insight—The Village of Wilsonville et al. v. SCA Services, Inc.	264

Prosecution of Municipal Government Environmental Offenders	266
Corporate and Individual Environmental Offenders	268
Insight—East Liverpool Incinerator: A Burning Issue Still Unresolved	269
Prosecution of Corporate and Individual Offenders	273
Conclusion	274
Review Questions	274
Discussion Questions	275
 Chapter 12—Environmental Ethics, Criminal Law, and Environmental Crime	 281
Nanci Koser Wilson
Model 1: Endowing Nonhumans with Humanlike Rights	283
Insight—Natural Toxins	284
Model 2: Endowing Humans with the Right to a Healthy Environment	286
Model 3: The Land Ethic or the Ecological Model	288
General Problems with the Three Models	292
Insight—Modern Science Meets Native Tradition	293
Conclusion	294
Review Questions	295
Discussion Questions	295
 Chapter 13—Mystification of Environmental Images: Identifying Environmental Crime	 299
Dion Dennis
Introduction	301
The Mystification of Environmental Language	302
Insight—Thoreau's Message Still Speaks to the Masses	306
Enabling Ideologies and Practices	308
Insight—Theology and Ideology: Where Less Is Actually More	309
Conclusion	312
Review Questions	312
Discussion Questions	313
 Chapter 14—International Environmental Issues	 315
Ray Michalowski
International Environmental Problems	315

Insight—A War on the Environment? American Troops in the Gulf War	319
International Environmental Problems and Social Movements	320
International Movements To Protect the Global Environment	321
Legal Strategies for Global Environmental Protection . . .	325
Insight—U.S. Nuclear Era: A Legacy of Secrets and Conspiracy	326
Development and Trade versus Environmental Protection	335
Insight—Deadly Birth Defects on the Texas-Mexico Border Raise Concerns about Pollution	337
Conclusion	338
Review Questions	339
Discussion Questions	339
 Chapter 15—Environmental Crime Research: Where We Have Been, Where We Should Go	 341
Donald J. Rebovich
Environmental Crime Research: What Has Been Accomplished?	342
Environmental Crime Research: Needs for the Future . . .	346
Some Key Obstacles To Overcome	349
Conclusion	350
Review Questions	352
Discussion Questions	352
 Part III Conclusion	 355
 PART IV—CASE STUDIES	 357
 Case Study 1—Community Opposition to Hazardous Waste Incineration: The Case of ENSCO	 359
Mary Clifford
Introduction to the Issues	359
Fueling the Incineration Argument	362
History of the ENSCO Case in Arizona	362
Community Groups Involved in the Conflict	363
Citizen Questions about the Hazardous Waste Facility	366

Critical Junctures in the Conflict	370
Resolution of the Arizona Controversy	372
Conclusion	372
Review Questions	373
Discussion Questions	373
Case Study 2—Hazardous Waste Regulation: Legacies of the Past and Projections for the Future	377
Harold Barnett
Hazardous Waste Regulation in the United States:
A Brief History	377
Who Pays for the Superfund?	380
Who Pays for Cleanup?	383
Who Are the Violators?	388
Why Is There No Victim Compensation?	389
State Efforts To Address Cleanup Issues	390
Hazardous Waste Site Issues	391
Resolution of Superfund Issues	393
The Future of Superfund	394
Case Study 3—Rocky Flats: A Plea Bargain in Public View	397
Brian Lipsett
Background	397
The Raid	398
The Settlement	399
The Settlement Turns Sour	400
The Investigation of the Prosecution of Rockwell	402
The Culture of the Department of Energy	403
The Plea Bargain	405
The Citizen Grand Jury	407
Postscript	410
Review Questions	410
Discussion Questions	410
Case Study 4—Controversy amid Controversy: Reauthorizing the Endangered Species Act	413
Mary Clifford
A Brief History of the Endangered Species Act	414
Mixed Reviews for the ESA	416
Economic Conflict Results in Political Firestorm	422

The Future of Endangered Species Protection
Efforts	424
Review Questions	426
Discussion Questions	426
Case Study 5—Environmental Crimes at the U.S.-Mexico
Border	431
Mark J. Spalding and Richard G. Opper
The Environmental Context of the Border	431
U.S. Laws: Impact on Border Environmental Crime	435
RCRA Crimes and Examples of Criminal Charges	437
Binational Cooperation	439
The Future of Environmental Crimes along the
U.S.-Mexico Border	443
Review Questions	446
Discussion Questions	446
Comments in Closing	447
Mary Clifford
Appendix A—Glossary	451
Appendix B—Important Environmental Activities	471
Appendix C—Criminal Sanctions Outlined in Federal
Environmental Legislation	475
Appendix D—Environmental Legal Cases	481
Appendix E—Environmental Crimes Investigations for Law
Enforcement Officers	489
Index	505
About the Contributors	533