

CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES	ix
LIST OF TABLES	xi
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	xiii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xix
1 Diversifying Family Language Policy Christina Higgins and Lyn Wright	1
Part I Diverse Families
2 The Discursive Functions of Kinship Terms in Family Conversation Lyn Wright	15
3 Family Language Practices of a New Zealand Adoptive Family Mohammed Nofal and Corinne A. Seals	33
4 Making a Family: Language Ideologies and Practices in a Multilingual LGBTQ+ Family with Adopted Children Kinga Kozminska and Zhu Hua	55
5 “When Kirogi Speaks Two Languages Perfectly”: Language Policies and Practices in a Korean Diasporic Family Hakyoon Lee	81

- 6 The Formation of 'Ohana in Hawaiian Language Revitalization 103
Christina Higgins

Part II Diverse Modalities

- 7 This Is the Normal for Us: Managing the Mobile, Multilingual,
Digital Family 123
Åsa Palviainen
- 8 Managing Language Shift through Multimodality: Somali
Families in London 143
Sahra Abdullahi and Li Wei
- 9 Researching Family Language Policy in Multilingual Deaf-Hearing
Families: Using Autoethnographic, Visual, and Narrative Methods 165
Maartje De Meulder, Annelies Kusters, and Jemina Napier

Part III Diverse Speakers and Contexts

- 10 Family Language Policy and Language Maintenance among
Turkmen-Persian Bilingual Families in Iran 191
Seyed Hadi Mirvahedi, Mojtaba Rajabi, and Khadijeh Aghaei
- 11 Family as a System: Values and Ideologies behind Family Language
Policies of Diverse Arabic-Speaking Multilingual Families 213
Fatma F. S. Said
- 12 "I Want to Maximize the Benefit for My Children": Marriage
Migrant Families' Strategic Family Language Policy and Practice in South Korea 237
Bong-gi Sohn
- 13 Coloniality and Family Language Policy in an African Multilingual
Family 257
Carolyn McKinney and Babalwayashe Molate
- 14 Beyond Success and Failure: Intergenerational Language
Transmission from within Indigenous Families in Southern Chile 277
Marco Espinoza and Gillian Wigglesworth

15	Foundational Questions: Examining the Implications of Diverse Families, Modalities, Speakers, and Contexts for Our Understandings of Family, Language, and Policy	299
	Aurolyn Luykx
	INDEX	313

FIGURES