

CONTENTS

Notes on contributors	viii
List of figures	xiii
List of tables	xiv
 PART I
Introduction	1
 Introduction	3
Ioana A. Coman, Darren Lilleker, and Miloš Gregor
 1 Risk communication during crisis and post-crisis loops: how governments communicated about the COVID-19 pandemic and vaccines: conceptual framework	6
Ioana A. Coman, Darren Lilleker, and Miloš Gregor
 PART II
National case studies	23
 Africa	25
 2 Ghana: communicating state capacity through humor and strategic absences	27
Matthew Sabbi

3	South Africa: government messaging during the COVID-19 pandemic	46
	Ndivhoniswani Aaron Tshidzumba and Lusanda Beauty Juta
	Americas	55
4	Brazil: from denialism to cynicism	57
	Ícaro Joathan, Diógenes Lycarião, and Cláudia Regina Ferreira
5	Mexico: governmental communication and management of the pandemic of COVID-19 – the “Vespertinas” as communication strategy	71
	Andrea Samaniego Sánchez
6	The United States: a fragmented and inconsistent response in a polarized environment	89
	John Marshall Callahan and Robert Jensen
	Europe	103
7	Czechia: from chaos and ignorance to calm and vaccination – government communication on COVID-19	105
	Otto Eibl and Miloš Gregor
8	Italy: managing risk and crisis communication in the context of political instability	118
	Alessandro Lovari
9	Sweden: the Quiet consensus	131
	Bengt Johansson and Orla Vigso
	The Middle East	145
10	Egypt: from empathetic rhetoric to pragmatism – addressing healthcare inequities in the COVID-19 response	147
	Dalia Elsheikh
11	Iran: ambivalent dynamics on the front lines during the COVID-19 pandemic	159
	Josef Kraus and Rasool Akbari

- 12 Israel: COVID-19 and public information 173
Yoel Cohen

South-East Asia 187

- 13 India: the message, the messenger, and the messiah –
 COVID-19 communication under Modi 189
Chindu Sreedharan

- 14 Vietnam: dynamic response and communication strategy in the COVID-19 pandemic 203
Tuong-Minh Ly-Le, Viet Tho Le, and Thi Tuyet Nguyen

- 15 Thailand: inconsistency and obscurity of government-led communication during the pandemic 216
Waraporn Chatratichart, Yaninee Petcharanan, and Phansasiri Kularb

Western Pacific 229

- 16 Japan: risk communication and COVID-19 231
Leslie Tkach-Kawasaki

- 17 China: unraveling crisis communication – assessing strategies in the COVID-19 pandemic 244
Menglin Liu and Shan Xu

- 18 Aotearoa New Zealand: the world-beating response that lost its luster 258
Ben Thurlow

PART III

Conclusion 273

- Conclusion: risk communication during COVID-19:
 national and global lessons learned 275
Ioana A. Coman, Darren Lilleker, and Miloš Gregor