

Contents

Introduction I

I Franciscanism, the Laity, and Portraits 19

The Munich Crucifixion – Giotto and the portrait – The Franciscan impulse –
On Francis and self-loss – Incommensurability of human and divine spheres

II The Democratization of the Portrait, 1270–1320 43

Varieties of supplicant portrait – Hegel on embedded portraits

III Historiography and Method 67

Rumohr and Burckhardt on Giotto – Twentieth-century views of Giotto –
Sociologies and anthropologies of art – The art of praise – Art and beauty –
Allegories and narratives – Sacred art and secular modernity

IV Witnesses 113

The Presentation of Christ in the Temple – Witnessing and recognition – Witnessing and the portrait – The midwives – The Lamentation over the Body of Christ – Proto-portraits