

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
List of abbreviations	xiv
Preface Willemien du Plessis and Melissa Powers	xvi

PART I FRAMEWORK FOR LOCAL CLIMATE CHANGE LAW

1 Local climate change law	3
Benjamin J. Richardson
2 Transnational voluntary climate change initiatives for local governments: key variables, drivers and likely effects	29
Stepan Wood and Kevin Thompson

PART II LOCAL CLIMATE ACTION IN NORTH AMERICA

3 Local climate change law and multi-level governance in North America	69
Scott Pasternack
4 Suburban climate change efforts in Minnesota: implications for multi-level mitigation strategies	105
Hari M. Osofsky
5 US municipal climate plans: what role will cities play in climate change mitigation?	134
Melissa Powers
6 Local solutions to a global problem? Climate change policy-making in Vancouver	164
Elizabeth Schwartz
7 Climate governance at the municipal level in Canada: a case study of mitigation efforts in Halifax	195
Meinhard Doelle and Kaija Belfry Munroe
8 Measuring climate action in Vancouver: comparing a city's greenhouse gas emissions inventory protocol to the inventory of consumption	221
Jennie Moore

- 9 Indigenous peoples and climate change policies: a comparative assessment of Indigenous governance models in Canada 243
Sophie Thériault

PART III LOCAL CLIMATE ACTION IN GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

- 10 Local climate action in the European Union 273
Marjan Peeters
- 11 Climate governance in China: using the 'iron hand' 300
Jolene Lin
- 12 Legal frameworks for local adaptation in Australia: the role of local government in water governance in a climate change era 325
Lee Godden
- 13 Climate governance in South African municipalities: opportunities and obstacles for local government 353
Anél du Plessis
- Index* 389