

International perspectives
and development

1.
Best Practices for the Washington
Conference Principles on Nazi-
Confiscated Art and the Way Forward
Wesley A. Fisher 11

2.
Restitution Law and Practice, Recent Developments
Agnes Peresztegi 23

3.
Searching, Linking, and Matching Documents on Nazi-Era Cultural Plunder: The Central Data Repository
of the Jewish Digital Cultural Recovery
Project
Deidre Berger 24

Restitution and government

4.
The Ministry of Culture and the mitigation of property-related injustices
caused by the Holocaust
Jan Holovsky 39

5.
Research, restitution and compensation policy in France. Recent developments
David Zivie 45

6.
Restitution of Nazi looted art under Dutch law
A. I. M. (Toon) van Mierlo 46

Provenance research in theory
and practice

7.
"They will remain here!" Fiction or reality? The historical context of the spoliation of objets d'art in the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia
1939-1945
Ondřej Vlček 53

8.
Provenance research at the Museum of Decorative Arts in Prague: the example of the catalogue "The collection of the Jew Josef Pollák"
Johana Prouzová 61

9.
Findings and Lessons from the Schaefer
Collection at Yale: A Provenance
Research Case Study
Antonia Bartoli 77

10.
Robert Kauder: From
a person's identification to an object's restitution
Katinka Gratzner-Baumgärtner 79

The fates of looted books and libraries

- 11.
History has not yet been fully written
The Library of Lost Books project:
reconstructing the book collection of the Hochschule für die Wissenschaft
des Judentums Berlin
Michal Bušek 91
- 12.
Sealing the fate of books. Documenting looted holdings at the Saxon State and
University Library Dresden
Olivia Kaiser 100
- 13.
Sealing the fate of books. Identifying looted holdings at the Saxon State and
University Library Dresden
Gabriela Brudzyńska-Němec 111
- 14.
Collecting, Digitisation, Provenance
research and Restitution at the Library of JTS-UJSH (the former Library of Budapest Rabbinical Seminary)
Balázs Tamási 120
- 15.
The Research of the Collection of Books Confiscated from Jews During the Holocaust
Jiří Blažek 140

Restitution — examples, challenges and limits

- 16.
Czech Approach to the Restitution of
Nazi-Confiscated Art
Zuzana Löbbling 147
- 17.
Richard Morawetz: art collector
Lucie Němečková 155
- 18.
Fair and just solutions? Experiences from 10 years as a representative of the Conference on Jewish Material Claims
Against Germany on the Advisory Board “Cultural Property Confiscations in the 20th Century” at the Klassik Stiftung
Weimar
Jens Hoppe 166
- 19.
The restitution and its contribution to the cultural heritage - the case of Poland
Bartłomiej Sierzputowski
Agata Modzolewska 175