

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: Socio-Cultural Contexts – Renewed Methodologies for Social Research	1
Part I Feminist Knowledge and Social Research: Understanding Prostitution	11
1 Feminism(s) and Prostitution	15
2 Feminist Knowledge and Social Research: Ethno-Mimesis as Performative Praxis	42
Part II Interpretive Ethnographies: Life-History Work	71
3 Women's Voices, Women's Lives	75
4 Adolescent Prostitution: Runaways, Homelessness and Living in Local Authority Care	97
Part III Feminist Postmodernisms and Ethnographies of Difference: Between Modernity and Postmodernity	121
5 Imagining Women: Prostitution, the Aestheticization of the Whore and the Social Organization of Desire	124
6 The City, Masculinity and the Social Organization of Desire: Pimps and Punters	154
Conclusion: Towards a Politics of Feeling	183
Notes	191
References	201
Index	217