

FOREWORD	2
CHAPTER 1: CLIMATE CHANGE	4
1.1 Global warming and Coronavirus are not distant cousins: Italian deaths due to local air pollution contribute to a profile of diseases that overlap with those accompanying Coronavirus diseases	5
1.2 Local air pollution and climate change: Help reduce seven million deaths a year	9
1.3 Let's get serious about climate change: Avoiding the irreversible path of global warming	12
CHAPTER 2: A LOOK AT AMERICAN SOCIETY	18
2.1 The "me" generations: Can "me" become "we"?	19
2.2 How our viewing program reflects society: Looking back at Breaking Bad: are you what you watch?	29
CHAPTER 3: THE CLIMATE CRISIS IN AMERICA	34
3.1 Can American labor unions help the climate transition? Where labor laws, training, and climate improvement agendas intersect	35
3.2 Do Super Political Action Committees (Super PACs) threaten our democracy and climate? The impact on the electoral contributions of the oil and gas industry	43
3.3 Climate migration in the United States of America: Would you relocate to avoid the risk of a natural disaster?	48
CHAPTER 4: BEING MALE	56
4.1 Male role models and how the warrior pervades: Could a provider approach instead positively influence our economic and political environment?	57
4.2 Toxic male psyche and climate change: The domination of man over nature	63
CHAPTER 5: CHANGING CAPITALISTS	72
5.1 A smart capitalist: Never a better time for a capitalist	73
5.2 Climate change and an intelligent capitalist: Interview with an anonymous CIO	75

CHAPTER 6: MAKE CLIMATE OPPORTUNITIES WORK FOR YOU	84
6.1 Empowered consumer and labor unions: Political imagination is required	85
6.2 Green, beautiful, healthy and profitable: The advantages of green deals and climate improvements in the United States of America	92
6.3 Energy efficiency: Don't miss out!	99
6.4 What we can do as adults to change our climate behavior: Starting with the community	103
6.5 Neighborhood community building: For anti-violence, climate change, and urban renewal	108
CHAPTER 7: WHAT IS HAPPENING IN EUROPE	116
7.1 The European green deal, Great ideas for smart planners: Fair, cost-effective and competitive action to achieve climate targets by 2030	117
7.2 Saving energy, the Italian way: Italy has always been very sensitive to its use of energy and materials	124
CHAPTER 8: THE ECONOMIC DEBATE: POST-GROWTH AND CLIMATE PROGRESS	130
8.1 Rethinking economic growth: Examining the economy through various analytical lenses	131
8.2 Earth for whom? A call to unite for a sustainable and inclusive future	138
8.3 Making markets work for climate improvement: A call for transparency and sustainability	144
8.4 Global climate progress and challenges: A bleak reality and glimmers of hope	150
8.5 Green investments: Navigating the path to a sustainable future	157
8.6 Advanced and emerging economies: Tackling climate warming together	163
8.7 Texan insights: navigating climate, wildfires, inequality: Urging sustainable transformation: a powerful call for change	170
8.8 Our love of green spaces: Everyone can enjoy green spaces	174
REFERENCES	186