

Contents

Acknowledgements	xvi
List of treaties and declarations	xvii
List of cases	xxv
List of figures and tables	xxxii
Glossary	xxxiv

PART I

Context – international trade in biotechnology	1
1 International trade in biotechnology and protection of biosafety: an uneasy combination	3

PART II

Addressing normative, judicial and epistemic challenges in trading biotechnology under the WTO	39
2 Normative, judicial and epistemic challenges for the WTO: free trade and biosafety	41
3 Proportionality analysis to address WTO normative and judicial challenges in the context of biotechnology	96
4 The precautionary principle to address WTO epistemic challenges in the context of biotechnology	136

PART III

Analysis of WTO biotechnology legal disputes	179
5 Introduction to and key reasons for a critical analysis of WTO biotechnology legal disputes	181

6	Allocation of the burden of proof to establish a prima facie case and standard of review to examine biotechnology matters: preliminary issues in the WTO jurisprudence on biotechnology	200
7	Adopting precautionary measures on biosafety in contexts of sufficient scientific evidence	228
8	Adopting precautionary measures on biosafety in contexts of insufficient scientific evidence	263
 PART IV
	Final insights	289
9	Conclusion	291
	 Index	 309