

Contents

Preface	vi
Acknowledgements	xiv
1 How sociological is the sociology of ageing?	1
2 The social structuring of later life	19
3 Representing age: culture and society	41
4 Class, generation and later lifestyle	63
5 Divisions and inequalities in later life	86
6 Risk society, cosmopolitanisation and later life	114
7 Households, families and communities	145
8 Ageing, health and the body	170
9 Towards a revised set of 'foglamps' and 'leitmotifs' for a new sociology of later life	188
References	199
Index	250