

Contents

| | |
|-----------------------|-----|
| Acknowledgments | IX |
| List of Figures | XI |
| Notes on Contributors | XII |

Introduction: Toward a History of Argumentative Practice in Late Imperial China 1

Martin Hofmann, Joachim Kurtz, and Ari Daniel Levine

PART 1

Comparison, Collation, Validation

- 1 Historical and Political Arguments: Debates on the Veritable Records in the Ming Dynasty (1368–1644) 47
Peter Ditmanson
- 2 A Performance of Transparency: Discourses of Veracity and Practices of Verification in Li Tao's Long Draft 90
Ari Daniel Levine
- 3 Learning with Metal and Stone: On the Discursive Formation of Song Epigraphy 135
Jeffrey Moser

PART 2

Visualization, Demonstration, Calculation

- 4 The Persuasive Power of Tu: A Case Study on Commentaries to the Book of Documents 177
Martin Hofmann
- 5 Inductive Arguments in the Midst of Smoke: "Proving" Rhetorically and Visually That Algorithms Work 234
Andrea Bréard

- 6 Keeping Your Ear to the Cosmos: Coherence as the Standard of Good Music in the Northern Song 277
Ya Zuo

- 7 The Textual Nature of Nature: Astronomical Debates in Eighteenth-Century China 310
Ori Sela

PART 3

Verification, Evaluation, Authentication

- 8 Identity Verification as a Standard of Validity in Late Imperial Civil Service Examinations 349
John Williams
- 9 Standards of Validity and Essay Grading in Early Qing Civil Service Examinations 393
Li Yu
- 10 Some Problems with Corpses: Standards of Validity in Qing Homicide Cases 431
Matthew H. Sommer
- 11 Value and Validity: Seeing through Silver in Late Imperial China 471
Bruce Rusk

PART 4

Corroboration, Refutation, Presentation

- 12 Philological Arguments as Religious Suasion: Liu Ning and His Study of Chinese Characters 503
Pingyi Chu
- 13 A Moral Verdict of Reasonable Doubts: Ouyi Zhixu's Argumentative Strategies in the Collection of Refutations against Vicious Doctrines 528
Manuel Sassmann

14 Reasoning in Style: The Formation of “Logical Writing” in Late Qing
China 565
 Joachim Kurtz

Index 607