

Contents

Abbreviations — XI

1 Introduction — 1

2 Lobbying and Advocating — 4

- 2.1 Negative and Positive Perceptions of Lobbying — 4
- 2.2 Definition of Lobbying, Grassroots Lobbying, Advocacy, Policy Advice, Public Affairs, Government Affairs, Public Policy Communications, Public Relations — 8
 - 2.2.1 Lobbying — 8
 - 2.2.2 Deep Lobbying — 11
 - 2.2.3 Grassroots Lobbying — 11
 - 2.2.4 Advocacy — 12
 - 2.2.5 Policy Advice — 14
 - 2.2.6 Public Affairs or Government Affairs — 15
 - 2.2.7 Public Policy Communications and Public Relations — 15
- 2.3 Aims of Library Advocacy — 17
- 2.4 Summary of Advocacy Terms — 18

3 Advocacy and Library Policy — 19

- 3.1 What is Library Politics? — 19
- 3.2 Libraries in the Context of Politics and Power — 21
- 3.3 Policy-Making is Political Opportunity — 23
 - 3.3.1 Political Decision-Making and the Political Structure of the State — 24
 - 3.3.2 Political Decision-Making at the Local Level — 24
 - 3.3.3 Political Decision-Making at the Regional Level — 26
 - 3.3.4 Political Decision-Making at the National Level — 31
 - 3.3.5 Policy-Making at the Intergovernmental Level — 32
 - 3.3.6 Policy-Making in the International Context — 33
- 3.4 Library Policies and Values — 35
 - 3.4.1 Values Used in Library Policy — 35
 - 3.4.2 Political Parties and their Values — 40
- 3.5 Library Politics Summary — 42

4	Libraries in Society — 44
4.1	The Role of Libraries in Society — 45
4.2	The Image of Libraries — 48
4.3	Ethical Principles in Libraries and Advocacy — 52
4.4	Summary of Ethics and Advocacy — 58
5	The Political Structure and the Library System — 59
5.1	Libraries and the Local Political Level — 59
5.2	Libraries and the Regional Political Level — 62
5.3	Libraries and the National Political Level — 64
5.4	Libraries and Intergovernmental Organisations — 66
5.5	Libraries and the United Nations and UN Organisations — 68
5.6	Summary of Political Levels for Advocacy — 69
6	Political Areas for Library Policy — 71
6.1	Cultural Policy — 71
6.2	Education Policy — 74
6.3	Science Policy and Research Policy — 76
6.4	Economic Policy — 77
6.5	Social Policy and Family Policy — 79
6.6	Summary of Policies Related to Libraries — 80
7	Library Advocacy at the International Level — 84
7.1	IFLA's International Library Advocacy — 84
7.2	IFLA – a Strong Advocate for Libraries and the UN Sustainable Development Goals — 86
7.3	Summary of Library Advocacy at the International Level — 104
8	Advocacy at the Intergovernmental Level — 106
8.1	Library Advocacy at the EU Level — 106
8.2	Library Advocacy at the ASEAN Level — 112
8.3	Library Advocacy at the Level of the African Union — 113
8.4	Summary of Intergovernmental Library Advocacy — 114
9	Library Advocacy at National and Regional Level — 115
9.1	Political Decision-Making and Issues for Library Advocacy at National Level — 115
9.2	Opportunities for National Advocacy – an Example from Germany — 117

- 9.3 Library Advocacy and the Head of State — 121
- 9.4 Library Advocacy and the National Level of Administration — 124
- 9.5 Library Advocacy at the Regional Level of a Country — 129
- 9.6 Summary of Library Advocacy at National and Regional Level — 132
- 10 Advocacy at the Community Level — 134
 - 10.1 Library Advocacy at the Community/ Municipality Level — 134
 - 10.2 Library Advocacy in Large Cities — 138
 - 10.3 Library Advocacy in a Small Town in Germany: The Example of Bruchköbel — 140
 - 10.4 Library Advocacy for Public Libraries using a Library Strategic Plan — 142
 - 10.5 Summary of Community Advocacy — 144
- 11 Library Advocacy Within Institutions - Academic Libraries, Special Libraries, School Libraries — 146
 - 11.1 Library Advocacy for Academic Libraries — 146
 - 11.2 Library Advocacy for Special Libraries — 154
 - 11.3 Library Advocacy for School Libraries — 155
 - 11.4 Summary of Institutional Advocacy — 158
- 12 How to use Government Strategy and Political Parties for Library Advocacy — 159
 - 12.1 Government Strategies and Library Responses — 159
 - 12.2 Political Party Policies and Library Responses — 160
 - 12.3 Summary of Library Advocacy Using Government Strategy and Party Policy — 162
- 13 Library Associations, Library Management, Library Staff and Library Advocacy — 164
 - 13.1 International Advocacy Activities of Library Associations — 164
 - 13.2 A Selection of Library Associations with Strong Advocacy Activities — 175
 - 13.3 Library Manager and Library Advocacy — 183
 - 13.4 Library People and Advocacy — 184
 - 13.5 Summary of Associations, Management and Staff in Library Advocacy — 186

- 14 Library Trustees and Friends of the Library as Advocates — 187
 - 14.1 Library Board Advocacy — 187
 - 14.2 Library Friends are Good Advocates — 187
 - 14.3 Summary of Trustees and Friends of the Library as Advocates — 192

- 15 Examples of Successful Advocacy — 193
 - 15.1 Advocacy for Building Projects — 193
 - 15.2 Advocacy with a Vision — 196
 - 15.3 Advocacy for Technological Development in Libraries — 201
 - 15.4 A Library Strategy Supports Successful Advocacy — 204
 - 15.5 Political Power Principle as Part of Library Policy Enforcement in Advocacy — 205
 - 15.6 Standards Derived from Successful Advocacy — 212
 - 15.7 Summary of Library Advocacy Examples — 217

- 16 Pitfalls in Library Advocacy — 218
 - 16.1 Mistakes in Policy Assessment — 218
 - 16.2 Trust Abused — 221
 - 16.3 Advocacy Mistakes in Behaviour — 221
 - 16.4 Other Difficulties in Library Advocacy — 223
 - 16.5 Advocating Pitfalls Summary — 224

- 17 Tips for Successful Advocacy — 226
 - 17.1 Analysing the Interests of the Policy-Maker — 227
 - 17.2 Developing the Advocacy Theme — 229
 - 17.3 Making the Advocacy Goal Politically Viable — 232
 - 17.4 No Advocacy Without a Network — 235
 - 17.5 Partnerships for Libraries — 240
 - 17.6 Ignore Opponents, Envious People and Competitors! — 243
 - 17.7 Expertise — 245
 - 17.8 Developing Clear Arguments for the Advocacy Project — 246
 - 17.9 Practice all Successful Arguments — 247
 - 17.10 Statistics and Impact Measures Support the Advocacy Arguments — 248
 - 17.11 Enrich Arguments with Success Stories and Images — 250
 - 17.12 The Advocacy Talk — 251
 - 17.13 Process Failure and Rejection — 254
 - 17.14 Luck, Chance and Other Disasters — 255
 - 17.15 Choosing the Right Moment — 256

17.16	Patience and Persistence – Important Elements of Advocacy —	258
17.17	Surprise and Humour – Pillars of Library Advocacy —	259
17.18	The Advocacy Letter —	260
17.19	Engaging the Press and Public —	261
17.20	Exhibition Openings and Other Events —	262
17.21	Personal Attitude and Appearance in Advocacy —	264
17.22	Supporting Library Advocacy with Protests, Demonstrations and Strikes —	267
17.23	Celebrating Advocacy Successes —	267
17.24	Summary of Advocacy Tips —	268
18	Advocacy for Libraries – the Best Quotes —	269
18.1	Advocacy Concept and Plan —	269
18.2	Advocating for Solutions —	270
18.3	Values —	270
18.4	Go Out and Listen! —	271
18.5	Consensus and Dissent —	271
18.6	Administration – Key Player in Advocacy —	271
18.7	Excellence and Capacity Building —	272
18.8	Storytelling for Advocacy —	272
18.9	A Network for Advocacy —	273
18.10	Patience in Advocacy —	274
18.11	Appearance in Advocacy —	275
19	The Future of Advocacy for Libraries —	276
	References —	283
	Index —	297