

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Contributors xv

Part I. Introduction and Overview

1. The Political Economy of Low Fertility 3

Frances McCall Rosenbluth

2. Women's Economic Status and Fertility: Japan in Cross-National Perspective 37

Sawako Shirahase

Part II. Constraints on the Demand for Female Labor

3. Gendering the Varieties of Capitalism: Gender Bias in Skills and Social Policies 63

Margarita Estévez-Abe

4. Gendered Offices: A Comparative-Historical Examination of Clerical Work in Japan and the United States 87

Mary C. Brinton

5. Employment Options: Japan in Comparative Perspective 112

Eiko Kenjoh

Part III. Constraints on Women's Supply of Labor

6. Policies to Support Working Mothers and Children in Japan 131

Patricia Boling

vi Contents

7. The Political Economy of Daycare Centers in Japan 155

Junichiro Wada

8. The Privatized Education Market and Maternal Employment in Japan 170

Keiko Hirao

Part IV. Conclusions and Prescriptions

9. Conclusion 201

Frances McCall Rosenbluth

Index 219