

CONTENTS

Foreword, by BEV BAINES      xii

Acknowledgments      xv

Table of Cases      xvi

Introduction: The When, Why, What, and How of the Book and How the Personal Becomes Political      1

I.1 The When and Why of This Book      1

I.2 The What and How of This Book      12

I.3 The Limits and Limitations      21

1 The Constitutional Establishment of the Gender Order: Revolutionary Times and Exclusionary Constitutionalism      26

1.1 The Revolutionary Moment and Women's Citizenship      26

1.2 The Enlightened Marital Contract and the Modern State      30

1.3 Women's Struggle in Revolutionary Constitutionalism and the Birth of Modern Patriarchal Family Law      39

1.4 The Constitutional Embedding of the Breadwinner
Family Order      44

1.5 First-Wave Feminism and Women's Constitutional Engagements      47

1.6 The Struggle for Women's Suffrage and the Separate
Spheres Tradition      51

1.7 Sex Equality Enters Constitutionalism and So Does Motherhood
and the Protection of the Family      57

1.8 Post-World War II Constitutionalism: Between Continuation and Rupture, toward Inclusive Gender Constitutionalism      67

2 Inclusive Constitutionalism and Its Limits      81

2.1 Second-Wave Feminism and Women's Equality Claims      81

2.2 Overcoming the Head-and-Master Regime: Toward Women's Equal Legal Status and Transitional Queries      85

|          |   |            |
|----------|---|------------|
| 2.3      | Women and the Market: The Fruits and Limits of Assimilationist Workerism  | 93         |
| 2.4      | The Working Mother: The Potential and Limitations of Maternalist Accommodationism   | 101        |
| 2.5      | The Birth of Abortion Constitutionalism   | 111        |
| 2.5.1    | Reproductive Autonomy Becomes Constitutionally Entrenched   | 114        |
| 2.5.2    | Normative Motherhood Becomes Constitutionally Entrenched  | 118        |
| 2.6      | Inclusive Constitutionalism Revisited   | 126        |
| 3 | Participatory Constitutionalism: Women as Norm Creators Broadening the Agenda                                      | 130 |
| 3.1      | The Participatory Turn in Women's Equality  | 130        |
| 3.2      | Women Joining Constitution-Making   | 137        |
| 3.3      | Toward Substantive Gender Equality  | 155        |
| 3.4      | Toward Parity Democracy   | 176        |
| 3.5      | Toward Women's Multinational and Multicultural Equality   | 194        |
| 4 | Transformative Gender Constitutionalism: Toward an Egalitarian Family Structure and Sexual and Reproductive Order  | 211 |
| 4.1      | Destabilizing the Public/Private Divide: Intimate Partner Violence and Violence against Women as a Constitutional Concern | 214        |
| 4.2      | New Abortion Constitutionalism and the Need for a Fuller Recognition of Women's Sexual and Reproductive Autonomy          | 231        |
| 4.3      | A Positive Right to Motherhood and the Foregrounding of a Caring Citizenship  | 246        |
| 4.4      | The New Constitutional Father?  | 259        |
| 4.4.1    | Removing the Remaining Sex-Based, Care-Related Differentiations   | 263        |
| 4.4.2    | Gender-Neutral Legal Orders Shaping Interpersonal Relations and Implicit Gender Role Assumptions                          | 267        |
| 5 | Toward a Constitutional Gender Erasure or a Constitutional Gender Reaffirmation?                                   | 274 |
| 5.1      | Gender Constitutionalism in the New Millennium  | 274        |
| 5.2      | Constitutional Challenges to the Hegemony of the Heterosexual Marital Family  | 279        |

|     |  |            |
|-----|--|------------|
| 5.3 | The Gender/Sex Categorization System under Constitutional Scrutiny: Toward the Affirmation of a Right to Gender Identity | 295        |
| 5.4 | Preemptive Action, Gender Equality Backlash, or the Reassertion of the Traditional Family Order                          | 309        |
|     | Conclusion  | 329 |
|     | Index   | 340 |