

Contents

1	An Introduction to Sustainable Consumption and the Law	1
	Alberto do Amaral Junior, Lucila de Almeida, and Luciane Klein Vieira
Part I Consumer Law and Sustainable Consumption
2	International and Transnational Consumer Law on Sustainable Consumption	13
	Mateja Durovic and Franciszek Lech
3	Sustainable Consumption and Obsolescence of Consumer Products	27
	Thierry Bourgoignie
4	The Shift from Consumer Protection to Consumer Empowerment and the Consequences for Sustainable Consumption	49
	Patrícia Galindo da Fonseca
5	Sustainable Consumption and Brazilian Consumer Behaviour	63
	Diógenes Faria de Carvalho and Vitor Hugo Do Amaral Ferreira
Part II Traditional Legal Disciplines and Sustainable Consumption
6	The Role of Sustainable Consumption and Disaster Law in Climate Risk Management	79
	Délton W. de Carvalho and Fernanda D. L. Damacena
7	Sustainable Public Procurement in Brazil	105
	Teresa Villac and Maria Cecília Loschiavo dos Santos
8	The Preventive Function and Sustainable Consumption: A Creative Challenge for Attorneys	119
	Claudia Lujan Oviedo

9	Taking Care of Business: Engaging Dialogue on Solutions to Unsustainable Commercial Practices	137
	Sergio Sebastián Barocelli
10	Consumer Law and Sustainability: The Work of the United Nations	153
	Ana Cândida Muniz Cipriano
11	International Trade in Environmental Goods and Services and Sustainable Production and Consumption	167
	Guilherme José Pastana de Figueiredo
 Part III Packaging and (Eco-)Labelling: Beyond the Information Paradigm
12	Regulating Green Marketing Claims in the United States	189
	James P. Nehf
13	Collective Valuation of the Common Good Through Consumption: What Is (Un)Lawful in Mandatory Country-of-Origin Labelling of Non-Food Products?	207
	Suvi Sankari
14	The Importance of Labelling Food Items: Information, Food Security and Sustainable Consumption	229
	Fabiana D'Andrea Ramos and Tatiana Cardoso Squeff
15	Tobacco Packaging As a Contribution for Promotion of a Healthy Environment in Brazil	249
	Luís Renato Vedovato and Cristiane G. F. Vianna
 Part IV Sector-Specific Approaches I: Transnational and International Law
16	The International Regulation of Living Modified Organisms	269
	Alberto do Amaral Junior and Luciane Klein Vieira
17	The Effects of International Agreements on Water Security: A Critical Study of the EU and MERCOSUR Approaches	285
	Kleverton Melo de Carvalho and Clara María Minaverri
18	Sustainable Water Consumption, Foreign Direct Investment and the Human Right to Water	307
	Andreia Costa Vieira
19	Building Upon Sustainable Consumption and Production for Food and Apparel	331
	Rodrigo Carvalho de Abreu Lima and Josiane Godoy Lima

- 20 Supermarkets and Private Standards of Sustainability: The Responsibility to Protect Without Protectionism 351
Tiago Matsuoka Megale

Part V Sector-Specific Approaches II: National Law

- 21 Reasonable Credit in Canada: An Attempt to Avoid Over-Indebtedness 375
Marc Lacoursière
- 22 Homes or iPhones? Diversion of Social Security Funds to Relieve Consumption-Fuelled Household Debt in Brazil 395
Maria Paula Bertran
- 23 Auction Design to Procure Energy Efficiency Measures as Distributed Energy Resources 409
Tiago de Barros Correia, Gabriel Moreira Pinto, and Vitor Hugo da Silva Oliveira
- 24 Consumer Law, Sustainable Energy Consumption and Mini- and Microgrid Decentralized Generation in Brazil 443
Claudia Lima Marques and Matheus Linck Bassani
- 25 Planned Obsolescence Resulting from Electrical and Electronic Equipment: Waste Rights and Brazil's National Solid Waste Policy 463
Cláudio José Franzolin
- 26 Potential Legal Avenues for Managing the Environmental Risks of Nanotechnology 479
Wilson Engelmann, Haide Maria Hupffer,
and Raquel Von Hohendorff
- 27 Looking Back to Look Forward: A Future Research Agenda for Sustainable Consumption, Law and Development 495
Alberto do Amaral Junior, Lucila de Almeida, and Luciane Klein Vieira