

Contents

Special Issue: A Response to External and Internal Threats of Division and Fragmentation? Revisiting European Solidarity in the Aftermath of Crises

Guest Editors: Esin Küçük, Theodore Konstadinides, and Yseult Marique

Guest Editorial

Framing the solidarity constitution	665
Theodore Konstadinides

Articles

Imagining transnational solidarity in the EU through Hegel's idea of mutual recognition	676
Ana Bobić
Competition and redistribution in Economic and Monetary Union	691
Carsten Gerner-Beuerle
Budget Conditionality judgments: A virtuous circle of solidarity to overcome moral hazard?	709
Yseult Marique
Solidarity at the intersection of data sharing and data protection: A normative analysis	728
Esin Küçük and Elif Mendos Kuşkonmaz
The (slow) redress of the 'solidarity deficit' in the EU and the emerging principle of solidarity in EU law	748
Sacha Garben
Solidarity on trial: On reliance, reason and logic at the Court of Justice of the European Union	772
Graham Butler	