Contents

122-

	List of figures and tables Notes on contributors Preface Acknowledgements	vii ix xii xv
	Introduction: Legitimisation strategies for a de-legitimised political world Robert Butler	1
PA	RT I The role of legitimisation in institutional contexts
1	Education and political socialisation in contemporary China: From institutional discourse to teaching materials Chiara Bertulessi	25
2	Smoothing processes in United Nations discourse on violence against women: A diachronic perspective Célia Atzeni	42
3	Who calls whom a populist? A pragmatic analysis of the uses of populism(s) and populist(s) in French and Spanish parliamentary debates Nadezda Shchinova	60
4	The Brexit saga: Stancetaking, control and identity in political discourse Juana I. Marín-Arrese	78

Junna I. Marin-Arrese

PART II Legitimisation and new media

5	Political discourse and the new media: New architectures of communication Mariya Chankova	103
6	Meaning-making in Trump's anti-Biden political campaign commercials: Multimodal perspective Tetiana Krysanova	123
P.A	ART III Legitimisation strategies and conceptualisation
7	A critical analysis of figurative language in the political discourse of conflict in Africa Issa Kanté	147
8	The CARD metaphor 'play the X card' as a social practice and its pragmatic functions Yuuki Tomoshige	167
9	Metaphors and political arguments in environmental debates: 'Our house is still on fire' Anaïs Augé
	Concluding remarks: Towards Legitimisation Studies in contemporary crises Robert Butler and Anaïs Augé	204
	Index	