

CONTENTS

Foreword xiii

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction xvii

CHAPTER 1

Market Organization and Structure

Learning Outcomes 1

1. Introduction 1

2. The Functions of the Financial System 2

2.1. Helping People Achieve Their Purposes in Using the Financial System 3

2.2. Determining Rates of Return 8

2.3. Capital Allocation Efficiency 9

3. Assets and Contracts 10

3.1. Classifications of Assets and Markets 11

3.2. Securities 13

3.3. Currencies 16

3.4. Contracts 16

3.5. Commodities 22

3.6. Real Assets 22

4. Financial Intermediaries 24

4.1. Brokers, Exchanges, and Alternative Trading Systems 25

4.2. Dealers 26

4.3. Securitizers 27

4.4. Depository Institutions and Other Financial Corporations 29

4.5. Insurance Companies 30

4.6. Arbitrageurs 31

4.7. Settlement and Custodial Services 33

4.8. Summary 35

5. Positions 35

5.1. Short Positions 36

5.2. Levered Positions 38

41	6. Orders
42	6.1. Execution Instructions
45	6.2. Validity Instructions
47	6.3. Clearing Instructions
47	7. Primary Security Markets
48	7.1. Public Offerings
50	7.2. Private Placements and Other Primary Market Transactions
51	7.3. Importance of Secondary Markets to Primary Markets
51	8. Secondary Security Market and Contract Market Structures
51	8.1. Trading Sessions
52	8.2. Execution Mechanisms
56	8.3. Market Information Systems
56	9. Well-Functioning Financial Systems
58	10. Market Regulation
61	11. Summary
63	Problems

CHAPTER 2 Security Market Indices

73	Learning Outcomes
73	1. Introduction
75	2. Index Definition and Calculations of Value and Returns
75	2.1. Calculation of Single-Period Returns
77	2.2. Calculation of Index Values over Multiple Time Periods
78	3. Index Construction and Management
79	3.1. Target Market and Security Selection
79	3.2. Index Weighting
88	3.3. Index Management: Rebalancing and Reconstitution
90	4. Uses of Market Indices
90	4.1. Gauges of Market Sentiment
90	4.2. Proxies for Measuring and Modeling Returns, Systematic Risk, and Risk-Adjusted Performance
90	4.3. Proxies for Asset Classes in Asset Allocation Models
91	4.4. Benchmarks for Actively Managed Portfolios
91	4.5. Model Portfolios for Investment Products
91	5. Equity Indices
91	5.1. Broad Market Indices
92	5.2. Multisector Indices
92	5.3. Sector Indices
93	5.4. Style Indices
94	6. Fixed-Income Indices
94	6.1. Construction
95	6.2. Types of Fixed-Income Indices
96	7. Indices for Alternative Investments
98	7.1. Commodity Indices
98	7.2. Real Estate Investment Trust Indices
98	7.3. Hedge Fund Indices