

Contents

Part I Introduction

- How Populism Affects Constitutional Law 3
Akritas Kaidatzis, Iphigenia Kamtsidou, and Costas Stratilatis
- Populism and Constitution Making Process 29
Christos Papastylianos

Part II Populist Constitutionalism and Authoritarianism

- ‘False’ Populists’ Abuse of Majoritarianism and Political Constitutionalism 53
Gábor Halmai
- An Analysis of Illiberal Democracies. Towards the End of Law? 65
Roila Mavrouli
- From Authoritarian Constitutionalism to Populist De-Constitutionalisation. Transformation of the Turkish State Under Erdoğan 83
Ilker Gökhan Sen
- Populist Transformation of Constitutional Law: North Macedonia 101
Renata Treneska Deskoska

Part III Populism and the Courts

- The Judge as a Populist Actor 121
Lucia Corso
- Populist Government and Judicial Power in Brazil in Times of the Covid-19 Pandemic: A Conflicting Relationship 133
Eleonora Mesquita Ceia

Rules of Standing and Populist Constitutionalism: The Case of the Greek Council of State	151
Dimitrios-Georgios Patsikas
 Part IV Populist Constitutionalism and Representation
Stopping Authoritarian Populist Projects: Why Constitutionalism Is Not the Sole Answer	165
Amal Sethi
Populist Constitutionalism and Representation. Reflections on the People in a New ‘Social Question’ Perspective	179
Charalampos Kouroundis
Lobbyism vs. Populism: A Brief Comparison U.S.A.-Italy	193
Roberto Di Maria
Measuring the Impact of Populism in the Face of EU Multi-level Governance: Politics and Constitutional Change	205
Alberto Nicotina	