
Contents

Preface	xi
Author	xiii
Introduction	xv
SECTION 1 MEANINGFUL HEALTHCARE EXPERIENCES
1 Meaning in Life as Meaning in Healthcare	3
Meaning in Life	7
Meaning in Work	18
Meaning in Healthcare.....	20
Summary	24
2 Meaningful Healthcare Experiences for People Receiving Care	25
3 Meaningful Healthcare Experiences for People Delivering Care	31
4 Proxemics, Emotions, Power, and Generations in Meaningful Healthcare Experiences	37
Proxemics and Meaningful Experience Design	38
Emotions and Meaningful Experience Design.....	41
Power and Meaningful Experience Design.....	45
Generations and Meaningful Experience Design	48
Summary	54
SECTION 2 DESIGNING MEANINGFUL HEALTHCARE EXPERIENCES
5 A Healthcare Experience	57
6 Healthcare Service Processes from a Sociotechnical Perspective	65

7	The Three Value Streams of American Healthcare Experiences.....	71
8	Organizational Process Value Stream.....	81
9	The Value Stream of People Receiving Care	87
10	The Value Stream of People Delivering Care.....	93
11	Meaningful Healthcare Experience Design Map	101
 SECTION 3 IMPLEMENTING MEANINGFUL HEALTHCARE EXPERIENCE DESIGN IN ORGANIZATIONS
12	Meaningful Experience Design as the Foundation of Healthcare Quality.....	109
13	Aligning Organizational Structures for Meaningful Experience Design	115
	Structure for People Receiving Care.....	116
	Structure for People Delivering Care	118
	Organizational Structure.....	120
14	Introducing Meaningful Healthcare Experience Design into Healthcare Organizations	125
	Step 1 – Senior Leadership Appoints a Small Taskforce to Explore Meaningful Experience Design and to Develop a Proposal for Leadership to Review and Approve	126
	Step 2 – Integrate Organizational Structures to Support Meaningful Experience Design	127
	Step 3 – Develop Training Materials for Meaningful Experience Design	128
	Description of the Overview of Meaningful Experience Design.....	128
	Meaning, Beliefs, Values, and Principles.....	129
	People Delivering Care	129
	People Receiving Care	130
	Organizational Processes and Process Improvements.....	130
	Mapping Meaningful Experience Value Streams for Design and Improvement	130
	Implementing Improvements.....	132
	Reporting on Improvements.....	134
	Step 4 – Identify Opportunities for Using Meaningful Experience Design	135

Step 5 – Initiate the First Meaningful Experience Design Project.....	135
Step 6 – Completion of the Initial Meaningful Experience Design Project	136
Step 7 – Report on the Initial Project and Lessons Learned	136
Step 8 – Improve the Meaningful Experience Design Methodology	137
Step 9 – Train More Groups and Initiate New Design and Improvement Projects	137
Step 10 – Conduct Quarterly and Annual Reviews of the Program	138
15 Orienting People Who Deliver Care to Meaningful Experience Design	139
16 Inviting People Who Receive Care into Meaningful Experience Design	145
17 Improving the Meaningfulness of Healthcare Experiences.....	149
18 Meaningful Healthcare Experiences and the Ethics Committee.....	155
 SECTION 4 INSIGHTS INTO AMERICAN HEALTHCARE HISTORY
19 The Historical Epochs of American Healthcare.....	165
Healthcare Free Trade Epoch: Prior to 1890s	166
Healthcare Scientific Epoch 1890s–1920s.....	173
Healthcare Scarcity Epoch 1930s–1940s	180
Healthcare Prosperity Epoch 1950s–1970s	186
Healthcare Globalization Epoch 1980s–2000s	190
Healthcare Sociotechnical Epoch 2010s–Present	199
Summary of American Healthcare Epochs	218
20 Ten Transitions from Twentieth-Century to Twenty-First- Century American Healthcare	221
Organizational Transitions: Twentieth-Century Bureaucratic Hierarchy to Twenty-First-Century Complex System	230
Organizational Relationship Transition: Twentieth-Century Transactional to Twenty-First-Century Emergent.....	233
Organizational Leadership Transition: Twentieth-Century Control to Twenty-First-Century Trust	236
Organizational Innovation Transition: Twentieth-Century Centralized to Twenty-First-Century Adaptive	240
Process Transition: Production Method – Twentieth-Century Craftsman to Twenty-First-Century Multidisciplinary Team	243

Process Transition: Delivery System – Twentieth-Century Hospital to Twenty-First-Century Continuum of Care.....	248
Process Transition: Information System – Twentieth-Century Isolation to Twenty-First-Century Network.....	251
Process Transition: Financial – Twentieth-Century Fee-For-Service to Twenty-First-Century Consumer Health Financing	254
Cultural Transition: Professional – Twentieth-Century Autonomy to Twenty-First-Century Integration.....	257
Cultural Transition: Metaphor – Twentieth-Century Scientific Machine to Twenty-First-Century Complex Adaptive System	262
Summary	269
 SECTION 5 REFLECTIONS ON AMERICAN HEALTHCARE
21 The World's Greatest Creation – An Allegory	273
22 Reflecting on the Beautiful Death and Implications for Healthcare.....	285
 References	289
Index	299