

“Armed with a Horowitzian technique, offset by a Horowitzian delicacy, he can tackle anything in the repertoire with an apparently effortless aplomb which is almost unnervingly serene” — BBC Music Magazine

Lang Lang is one of the most extraordinary pianists of our time. For over a decade he has taken the musical world by storm, winning accolades for his concerts, recordings and activities as a UNICEF cultural ambassador. This 12-CD set brings together his Deutsche Grammophon recordings from 2003 to 2009, his solo and concerto debut albums on the Telarc label, as well as offering a generous bonus CD of rarities.
